From Germany to Antietam Thomas Poffenberger, 2009 The 3rd Edition is a total re writing of the 2nd Edition I am satisfied that I have completed the story of the first family The last trips to Germany Maryland and Pennsylvania have tied up loose ends We have found the birth place of Anna Martha in Germany as well as the name of the wife of George Jr and the mother of George A11 born 29 May 1745 Her first name Margaretha is the same as a 19 year old girl listed on the ship when the family arrived in Philadelphia She is therefore the likely mother of John B the founder of the Poffenberger clan of Washington Co MD who was born shortly after their arrival My visit to Host Church at Tulpehocken resulted in being shown what was said to be the large Pfaffenberger farm and seemingly the original plantation since records show it was near Host Church The last three members of the family to live there Ralph b 1884 Samuel born 1884 Carrie born 1882 all died the same year in 1963 The old farm house long deserted is covered with vines They would be descendants of Michael A7 the last child of Anna Martha and Johann George Pfaffenberger I have added several pages of documentation births and marriages from various church records which may be helpful to some in their search Comment regarding the 2nd Edition I have been tracing this family for about 5 years now Thomas Poffenberger filled in some of the gaps and answered the many questions that come up after you find that next clue I read it cover to cover in two days I went to Germany 15 years ago and had a wonderful visit with the friendly locals this makes me want to go back soon D Sinclair Indianapolis Indiana United States Dr Poffenberger has answered all the questions about my father's ancestors that I never would have been able to discover myself I recommend that anyone who has read this exceptional book goes to Mistelgau Germany which is in a beautiful rural part of Bavaria In this little village is the 14th century church preserved with its original carvings and painted icons where the Poffenberger family worshipped It just gave me goosebumps to think that my ancestors stood where I was standing Bunny Encinitas CA USA I enjoyed this book very much Mr Poffenberger did a lot of research and I really enjoyed learning about where they came from in Germany There was even some pictures We had been searching hoping to find a clue linking our family to the Pennsylvannia group and with his help we have done that The book also gives you history in Germany and in Pennsylvannia The Poffenbergers were certainly in the middle of all the early wars and managed to survive Wanda Gaul Geneva New York Thanks to Thomas Poffenberger's book From Germany to Antietam I can now confirm where my mother's grandfather Daniel Poffenberger was born After 20 some years of researching I now know Daniel was born in Berks County Pennsylvania who his parents were and when and where he was baptized The history all through the book is an asset to any reader with an interest in the history of Berks county as well as Germany I am indebted to Thomas Poffenberger for the book and the hours of research he and his wife did Julia L Hach Medina Ohio USA New World Immigrants Michael Tepper, 1979 A consolidation of the many articles regarding ship passenger lists previously published The 1995
