1970s This tradition spearheaded by Manuel Vazquez Montalban is the subject of a separate essay by Maria Balibrea that analyzes the socio political conditions that gave rise to the novela negra NancyVosburg studies the emergence of a feminine feminist crime novel in the 1980s and 1990s and the subversion of masculine codes associated with crime fiction while Stewart King analyzes crime fiction from the Catalan Basque and Galician autonomous regions of Spain focusing on the political realities that resulted in a different use of the genre as a vehicle of regional nationalism David Knutson traces contemporary trends in Spanish crime fiction beginning in the 1990s and up to the present Paul Castro s essay documents the emergence of crime fiction in Portugal and the major works authors through to the present Transatlantic Mysteries William J. Nichols,2011 Transatlantic Mysteries presents a comparative study that brings together authors Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Manuel V zquez Montalb n from two specific political contexts post 1968 Mexico and post Franco Spain who both work in one specific genre noir detective fiction In this so called age of globalization Spain and Mexico have witnessed an explosion in the production of noir detective fiction which these authors choose purposefully in order to infiltrate the market with formulaic popular literature while simultaneously critiquing the effects of the neoliberal strategies embraced by their countries By locating themselves at the crossroads where literature meets the market they not only underscore the effects of capital on literary and cultural production but also explore the possibility for their writing to resist the influences of capital and question the role of an intellectual in an era of globalization At the core of their writing Taibo and V zquez Montalb n examine the revolutionary possibilities of literature and popular culture to offer a new kind of Marxist project that revitalizes the Left by redefining the role of socially engaged literature in a globalized landscape Resisting Invisibility Diana Aramburu,2019-05-09 Engaging with pre feminist and male authored crime literature Resisting Invisibility offers a comparative reading of women s bodies as represented in Spanish crime literature from the mid nineteenth century to the present Utilizing the twin concepts of visibility and invisibility the book establishes a genealogy of differing viewpoints regarding women s positions in these narratives before and after the birth of the modern Spanish female detective This examination of the politics of female visibility expands our understanding of the aesthetic regimes that have governed the female body from the early phases of the genre s evolution While most scholars understand the feminization of the crime genre as a response to second wave feminism Resisting Invisibility demonstrates that even in the earliest representations of delinquent women the politics surrounding the female body are problematized and are more complex than previously conceptualized Drawing on gender and queer studies Resisting Invisibility investigates the gendering of crime fiction forcing us to reconsider the literary history of female visibility and prompting us to establish an alternative genealogy for Spanish crime literature Historical Dictionary of Spanish Cinema Alberto Mira,2019-12-04 Historical Dictionary of Spanish Cinema covers Spanish cinema its treasures its constant attempts to break through internationally reaching out towards universal themes and conventions and the specific obstacles and opportunities that have shaped the careers of filmmakers and stars This book contains a chronology an introduction an appendix and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on titles movements filmmakers and performers and genres such as homosexuality nuevo cine espa ol or horror This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Spanish cinema Investigating Identities Marieke Krajenbrink, Kate M. Quinn, 2009 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction Crime Scene Spain Renée W. Craig-Odders, Jacky Collins, 2014-01-10 This essay collection examines the changing cultural political and physical landscape of Spain as represented in Spanish crime fiction of the last three decades The first several essays focus on crime fiction set in Barcelona and look at among other topics the symbiotic relationship between the city and the detective in Francisco Gonzalez Ledesma s long running Inspector Mendez series Manuel Vazquez Montalban s treatments of the 1992 Summer Olympic Games and place and identity in Alicia Gimenez Bartlett s Petra Delicado series Other essays examine regional and cultural illiteracy in Jorge Martinez Reverte s Galvez series and Spain s changing urban centers as represented in Andreu Martin s El blues de la semana mas negra Thinking Barcelona Edgar Illas, 2012-01-01 Thinking Barcelona studies the ideologies that redefined Barcelona during the 1980s and helped the city adapt to a new economy of tourism culture and services Looking specifically at the lead up to the 1992 Olympic Games and the urban renewal geared toward establishing Barcelona as a happy combination of European cosmopolitanism and Mediterranean rootedness Edgar Illas situates Barcelona as a key example of contemporary urban rebranding after the fall of communism and the establishment of the neoliberal end of history Looking at a host of materials associated with the games as well as contemporary architectural and literary works he offers a compelling look at postmodern globalization as it manifests itself through urban regeneration A Companion to Spanish Cinema Bernard P.
