These that the comparing of unequal things within a discourse serve a synthesis to bring about. The representation of unequal things and the announcement here to a third perspective should bring people into their life world. Orientation offers how this succeeds. How does this succeed? The author shows this by comparing the political, ethical and everyday world level with the comparing. In doing so, he remains close to the theory. Bonfranchi's concrete theme complexes bring out world images of distributional justice, sports technique or goods. Some of these are reached through the structure of the chapters in dialog form. The speakers elaborate on the comparing positions in a way that is very human and very understandable. The publication addresses itself to philosophers and philosophers as well as interested laymen.

Utriusque cosmi historia Robert Fludd, 2018      Jeremias Gotthelf Marianne Derron, Christian von Zimmermann, 2014-10-31

The literary work of the pastor Albert Bitzius 1797-1854 has once again become a focus of research. Since 2004, Barbara Mahlmann Bauer and Christian von Zimmermann have been working with an editorial team on a new historical and critical edition of his works and correspondence. The last ten years have seen not only the publication of the first editions with full annotations and commentary of the pastor's sermons and of the political and educational writings, but also new perspectives on the narrative works. Against the background of this research, this volume brings together new studies on Jeremias Gotthelf's life and works. The contexts of theology, church school history, politics and literature which have been revealed in the work on the commentaries are used to shed new light on the complete works and as a basis for analyses of well-known individual texts such as "Leiden und Freuden eines Schulmeisters", "Die schwarze Spinne", "Das Erdbeeri", "Mareili" and "Die Frau Pfarrerin".
