Co-production of Knowledge in Action Cassidy Johnson, Vanesa Castán Broto, Wilbard Jackson Kombe, Catalina Ortiz, Barbara Lipietz, Emmanuel Osuteye, Caren Levy, 2025-09-15 Co production of actionable knowledge as a development strategy entails working in partnership with different institutions and sharing power so that communities can participate in planning urban futures From housing access to land services and livelihoods co production strategies serve to advance collective interventions to improve inhabitation in cities around the world Over time experiences of co production have generated critical insights about the opportunities and limits of such partnership strategies Co production of Knowledge in Action engages with this critique from the perspective of practice It examines how co production is articulated and deployed in cities such as Lima Freetown Kampala Dar es Salaam and Delhi and explores ongoing experiences of co production inspired action mapping the different aspirations that inform co production practices and the impacts on urban communities While the volume recognises the limitations of co production and the ways it can serve to reproduce power structures if emptied of its political transformatory intent the authors also seek to understand the emancipatory potential of co production as an incremental strategy that has the power to transform urban planning practices
