Education Reform Quest For Excellence:

Education Reform and the Quest for Excellence Lok Sang Ho, Paul Morris, Yue-ping Chung, 2005-11-01 This book investigates and analyses critical issues in education reform and discusses possible pitfalls in the current global drive to promote excellence. Instead of documenting the successes and frustrations encountered by education reformers in specific jurisdictions, this book aims to offer directions for education reformers and sets out to be prescriptive rather than descriptive. While the cases covered here are focused on Hong Kong, they are no less useful in throwing light upon the direction of education reform all over the world. The first section of the volume, Conceptual Framework, provides the theoretical underpinnings for the design and implementation of education reform. The next two sections, Reform of Tertiary Education and Experiments, Dilemmas and Risks in Secondary Schools, look at reform at the tertiary and secondary levels in greater detail. The final section, Ideals vs Reality, the Interplay of Diverse Interests and Diverse Perceptions, looks at the conflicting goals and perceptions of different stakeholders, with a concluding chapter that summarizes the main lessons to be learnt. This book will be of interest to scholars, educators, parents, policymakers, politicians, and all who are concerned about our younger generation and their future. The editors, Lok Sang Ho, Paul Morris, and Yue ping Chung, are to be congratulated on producing a volume which is both hard hitting and insightful about education reforms in Hong Kong. The range of experiences of the contributing authors contribute to a most interesting mix of perspectives about education reform. The focus is squarely on Hong Kong in terms of general policy and reform issues, followed by more specific chapters dealing with issues of graduate teachers, English as a medium of instruction, and the role of the media. However, the issues raised are very applicable to many countries. This book is a valuable contribution to the literature on education reform. Professor Colin J Marsh, Curtin University, Perth, Western Australia.

Making Sense of Education in Post-Handover Hong Kong Thomas Kwan-Choi Tse, Michael H. Lee, 2016-11-10 Since 1997, when Hong Kong became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China, a string of education reforms have been introduced to improve the quality of education and maintain Hong Kong's economic competitiveness in the age of globalization. This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of major issues and challenges faced by the education system, ranging from pre-school to higher education. It analyses the prospects for educational development in Hong Kong. It further addresses how the Hong Kong government has responded to the perceived challenges of the external environment and internal forces, and explains the rationales for the actions taken. Not only does it review how the reform initiative challenges have been dealt with, it also reviews how effective these initiatives are and its implications on future directions.

Asia's High Performing Education Systems Colin Marsh, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2014-07-17 Education officials, specialist leaders, and teachers have all been involved in different ways to bring about school reform in Hong Kong. This book is a very current and relevant analysis of this reform, highlighting the way in which agencies have cooperated in bringing about change over the last several decades. Through a process of wide-ranging decision making collaboration and consensus among key bodies and agencies of change some important developments have occurred The reforms collectively have had and are continuing to have a major impact upon schooling in Hong Kong This volume represents a range of authors and specialists involved in a number of different reforms covering themes such as historical policy contexts new curriculum approaches changing pedagogies school leadership implementation and change and assessment and evaluation This is a very topical book which provides a probing analysis of how an Asian education system has been able to reach and maintain a very high performing level
