Nonlinear
Wave Equations
 For the general case, we consider the nonlinear wave equation where  $\rho$  is the density,  $\mu$  is the shear modulus, and  $\lambda$  is the bulk modulus. The wave equation is solved by the method of characteristics. The solution is given by the following formula:

as educational leader Maria J. Ciriello, 1998-04 Addresses seven competencies in leadership and nine in curriculum and instruction Includes more than 150 sources in the bibliography Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P. Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development

Developing School Leaders in the Pacific Narsamma Lingam, Govinda Ishwar Lingam, 2023-08-31 This book provides detailed insights on the training and development for Pacific Island school leaders It draws extensively on original empirical research that explores school leaders' perceptions of how leadership and management training impacted their professional practices and how these practices in turn impacted the dynamics of school operations This book addresses a critical need to understand how to support leadership development for all Pacific schools but especially in schools that are faced with the increasing challenges of learning and teaching conditions In small island developing states in the Pacific region school leaders face a myriad of challenges due to limited human and material resources and a fragile economic base Written by Pacific Islander authors this book provides insights from different countries in the Pacific Islands It shows how contextual challenges can exert enormous pressure on school leaders who are leading and managing schools without any leadership preparation Given the importance of effective leadership practices and its impact on student learning outcomes this book aims to be a source of reference for practitioners and educational authorities who have a vested interest in the provision of quality education in the Pacific region and beyond
