Educational Psychology Shelagh M. J. Towson,1992 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975

Special Education in Multicultural Contexts Margret A. Winzer,Kas Mazurek,1998 This timely book helps future teachers practicing teachers aids and paraprofessionals understand and accommodate children with disabilities or giftedness in a special education setting or in regular classroom settings It examines changing instruction and adapting classroom climates structures and discipline to address the distinct work styles views values language and expectations of children from diverse backgrounds For those working within the special education field or those who are considering a profession within special education Children with Exceptionalities in Canadian Classrooms Margret Winzer,1995-12 Canadian Journal of Native Education ,2009 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Handbook of Children's Literacy Terezinha Nunes,Peter Bryant,2013-03-09 PETER BRYANT TEREZINHA NUNES The time that it takes children to learn to read varies greatly between different orthographies as the chapter by Sprenger Charolles clearly shows and so do the difficulties that they encounter in learning about their own orthography Nevertheless most people who have the chance to learn to read do in the end read well enough even though a large number experience some significant difficulties on the way Most of them eventually become reasonably efficient spellers too even though they go on make spelling mistakes at any rate if they are English speakers for the rest of their lives So the majority of humans plainly does have intellectual resources that are needed for reading and writing but it does not always find these resources easy to marshal What are these resources Do any of them have to be acquired Do different orthographies make quite different demands on the intellect Do people differ significantly from each other in the strength and accessibility of these resources If they do are these differences an important factor in determining children s success in learning to read and write These are the main questions that the different chapters in this section on Basic Processes set out to answer Parental Involvement and Social Background in Canada and Germany Imogen Feld,2018 Results of the Progress in International Reading Literacy Study 2011 PIRLS 2011 illustrate yet again that the association between reading achievement of fourth graders and social background in Germany is high compared to the OECD country mean This relation is less pronounced for the Canadian Provinces that are participating in PIRLS 2011 The present study conducts a comparative analysis between Germany and the participating Canadian Provinces concerning the association between parental involvement social background and reading achievement This direct country comparison is extended by conducting analyses on performance groups as well as on differences between the Canadian provinces Quebec and Ontario The approach of the current study is to use general results of large scale assessment data to identify differences between countries and groups and to provide a more in depth analysis of the data A broad literature review helps to interpret the results more accurately taking additional information about the country contexts into account Dr Imogen Feld Studium der Soziologie an der Philipps Universit t Marburg 2016 Promotion an der Universit t

The Texts in Elementary Classrooms James V. Hoffman, Diane Lemonnier Schallert, 2004-09-22 This CIERA sponsored book is based on the premise that high quality texts of all kinds are essential to good teaching in elementary classrooms Experts on a variety of text related topics were asked to summarize existing research and then apply it to literacy development in an ideal classroom The most comprehensive and up to date book in its field it moves progressively from an examination of discrete literacy processes and forms to a holistic overview and assessment of the classroom literacy environment Content coverage in this outstanding new book includes Literacy Processes Part I examines basic reading processes instruction comprehension word recognition fluency and motivation as they relate to text features Forms of Texts Part II examines the wide variety of text types fiction nonfiction leveled local and electronic that comprise an effective classroom literacy program Discussions include the nature of these texts their qualities and quantities how they fit into an instructional plan and how a teacher might assess their effectiveness Text Selection Part III examines special issues linguistic diversity and teachers as censors related to the selection of classroom texts Personal Applications The final hands on chapter synthesizes the book's ideas and offers practical tools checklists and inventories whereby teachers can self assess the literacy environment of their own classrooms

This book is suitable for anyone graduate students in service reading specialists and curriculum directors college faculty and researchers who deal directly with issues of classroom literacy Cross-linguistic Transfer in Reading in Multilingual Contexts Elena Zaretsky,Mila Schwartz,2016-10-03 This book represents concurrent attempts of multiple researchers to address the issue of cross linguistic transfer in literacy It includes broad spectrum of languages and reflects a new generation of conceptualizations of cross linguistic transfer offering a different level of complexity by studying children who are trilingual and even learning a fourth language The collection of papers in this volume tried to capture the dynamic developmental changes in cross linguistic transfer that include such factors as age of acquisition typological proximity of L1 and L2 and L3 L4 intensity of exposure to language and reading in ambient and newly acquired language s quality of input and home literacy More stringent methodological considerations allowed to isolate specific constructs that suggest either primary levels of children s metalinguistic abilities phonological awareness that can be applied cross linguistically or a more language specific constructs morphological awareness that relies on various factors including typological proximity language proficiency and task demands Originally published in Written Language Literacy Vol 17 1 2014 Historical Foundations of Educational Psychology John A. Glover,Royce R. Ronning,2013-11-11 This volume represents a beginning effort to compile a history of educational psychology The project began innocuously enough several years ago when we decided to add mon material about the history of educational psychology to the undergraduate course we were teaching What seemed like a simple task became very complex as we searched in vain for a volume dealing with the topic We ended up drawing on various histories of psychology that devoted anywhere from a few paragraphs to several pages to the topic and on a very few articles addressing the issue We were startled frankly by the apparent lack of interest in the history of our field and decided to attempt to compile a history ourselves As is the case with any edited volume the contributing authors deserve credit for its positive features They uniformly made every effort asked of them and taught us much about educational psychology Any errors or omissions are our responsibility alone Creative Education, Teaching and Learning Gayle Brewer,Russell Hogarth,2018-11-22 Educators and education policy has increasingly acknowledged the value of creativity and creative approaches to education in particular This book highlights a range of innovative teaching techniques successfully employed by teachers from a range of disciplines and education levels in order to share knowledge regarding creative education

Literacy Acquisition R. Malatesha Joshi,Che Kan Leong,Bozydar L. J. Kaczmarek,2003 Learning Words from Reading Megumi Hamada,2021-07-15 An increasingly popular approach to second and foreign language education this book focuses on incidental learning how students learn words from reading Despite its popularity some researchers have questioned this theory that students can learn new words by inferring meanings based on a text they are reading So why does the incidental method not work for some students What are the conditions for naturalistic learning to occur What do students need to be able to do while reading in order to learn words successfully Tackling these questions head on this book provides researchers and educators with a more specific account of the processes behind the seemingly naturalistic method Clarifying the connection between reading and word learning processes Megumi Hamada proposes a new model the Cognitive Model of Word Meaning Inference to describe how we obtain and use word form and contextual information for learning words and the pedagogical applications of this A significant new contribution to research in the field Learning Words from Reading provides a cognitive perspective on how students learn new words from reading in a second or foreign language Alberta Journal of Educational Research ,1996 International Handbook of Emotions in Education Reinhard Pekrun,Lisa Linnenbrink-Garcia,2014-04-16 For more than a decade there has been growing interest and research on the pivotal role of emotions in educational settings This ground breaking handbook is the first to highlight this emerging field of research and to describe in detail the ways in which emotions affect learning and instruction in the classroom as well as students and teachers development and well being Informed by research from a number of related fields the handbook includes four sections Section I focuses on fundamental principles of emotion including the interplay among emotion cognition and motivation the regulation of emotion and emotional intelligence Section II examines emotions and emotion regulation in classroom settings addressing specific emotions enjoyment interest curiosity pride anxiety confusion shame and boredom as well as social emotional learning programs Section III highlights research on emotions in academic content domains mathematics science and reading writing contextual factors classroom family and culture and teacher emotions The final section examines the various methodological approaches to studying emotions in educational settings With work from leading international experts across disciplines this book synthesizes the latest research on emotions in education

International Perspectives on Contexts, Communities and Evaluated Innovative Practices Rollande

Deslandes,2009-06-10 Research and practice in the vast field of school family community relations have evolved dramatically over the last thirty years Schools throughout the world face enormous challenges due to demographic changes and societal problems making partnerships among schools families and community groups a necessity Specific issues such as poverty school dropout violence and suicide the wider diversity of students and parents the higher accountability demanded of school systems the implementation of school reforms and a multitude of government strategies and policies all contribute to a rapidly changing educational world But as this book shows even though research is often being undertaken independently in different countries strong similarities are apparent across countries and cultures School family community collaboration is no longer a single country issue The book brings together contributions from culturally and linguistically diverse countries facing these common situations and challenges It details practices that have proved effective alongside relevant case examples and covers a wide variety of topics including challenges arising from the application of parent school legislation at national level the work of schools with migrant groups low income parents and parents with behaviour problems evaluation of various family school community partnerships programs the way ahead for Family School Community Relations With contributions from distinguished researchers from throughout the world including the United States Canada the UK Europe China and Australia It is a perfect companion to International Perspectives on Student Outcomes and Homework also edited by Rollande Deslandes and published simultaneously by Routledge Competent Reader, Disabled Reader Martin H. Singer, 2024-02-09 In the past frustration with experimental reports had caused educators to dismiss the entire reading research enterprise Originally published in 1982 this book attempts to abstract those experimental results relevant to developing effective reading programs The book concentrates on the more mechanical aspects of reading skill such as visual discrimination ability visual and auditory memory visual to phonetic translation skills and attentional strategies These skills it is argued account for the major proportion of variance in reading ability The research on both competent and incompetent reading indicates the special importance of such skills to reading The book contains three sections Section I reviews the experimental evidence on competent reading The review highlights consistent threads of evidence and provides a description of the competent reader s strategies for analyzing text Section II reviews research on poor reading This section evaluates the concept of dyslexia and stresses that reading problems are not uniform Section III maintains that the information about competent reading strategies and the impediments to acquiring those strategies should guide educators in evaluating instructional materials and facilitate the diagnosis of reading failure Today it can be read in its historical context
