artist Kiki Long is driving to her first day of work at her new job as the Pride Falls forensic photographer when she spots a smoking car that's skidded off the road. After confirming nobody is inside, her natural inclination to document what she's witnessing takes over and she starts taking pictures, which means she's standing too close when the vehicle explodes. Now she's dealing with a head injury and an irate detective who accuses her of messing up his crime scene. That's nobody's definition of a good first day. But she did do a good job with the photos. They prove that the owner of the car didn't die in the explosion and they give the ornery detective a place to start his investigation. It's the goat that Kiki saw before she started snapping photos that makes her curious. Despite the detective's dismissal of her idea, she starts her own amateur sleuthing along with her two best friends. Her curiosity just might just get them all killed. The Every Dave Eggers, 2021-11-16 From the award-winning bestselling author of The Circle comes an exciting new follow-up. When the world's largest search engine social media company, the Circle, merges with the planet's dominant e-commerce site, it creates the richest and most dangerous and oddly enough, most beloved monopoly ever known. The Every Delaney Wells is an unlikely new hire at the Every. A former forest ranger and unwavering tech skeptic, she charms her way into an entry-level job with one goal in mind: to take down the company from within. With her compatriot, the not-at-all ambitious Wes Makazian, they look for the Every's weaknesses, hoping to free humanity from all encompassing surveillance and the emoji-driven infantilization of the species. But does anyone want what Delaney is fighting to save? Does humanity truly want to be free? Studded with unforgettable characters, outrageous outfits, and lacerating set pieces, this companion to The Circle blends absurdity and terror, satire and suspense, while keeping the reader in apprehensive excitement about the fate of the company and the human animal. Funeral for a Dog Thomas Pletzinger, 2025-04-25 The kind of writing that makes us want to read the whole book as soon as possible, a shot of adrenaline that immediately takes us to a new world. David Varno. Words Without Borders. Journalist Daniel Mandelkern leaves Hamburg on assignment to interview Dirk Svensson, a reclusive children's book author who lives alone on the Italian side of Lake Lugano with his three-legged dog. Mandelkern has been quarreling with his wife, who is also his editor; he suspects she has other reasons for sending him away. After stumbling on a manuscript of Svensson's about a complicated ménage à trois, Mandelkern is plunged into mysteries past and present. Rich with anthropological and literary allusion, this prize-winning debut set in Europe, Brazil, and New York tells the parallel stories of two writers struggling with the burden of the past and the uncertainties of the future. Funeral for a Dog won the prestigious Uwe Johnson Prize, and critics raved. Pletzinger's debut is a real smash hit. It's been a long time since a young German writer has thrown himself into the hurly-burly of life and literature with so much intelligence and bravado. Wolfgang Hobel. Der Spiegel. Where You Are J. H. Trumble, 2012-12-24 When high school math teacher Andrew McNelin, after watching Robert Westfall, his best student struggling, crosses the line between professional and personal, he knows that he and Robert are edging into a territory that holds incalculable risks for both of them.
