Wolfgang Büttner, Edith Heerden, Monika Madras, Joachim Mock, Günther Neutze, Peter Paul, Jimmy Powell, Paul Verhoeven, 1967 The Crisis, 1962-12 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens A Dramatic Reinvention Stewart Anderson, 2020-04-09 Following World War II Germany was faced not only with the practical tasks of reconstruction and denazification but also with the longer term mission of morally re civilizing its citizens a goal that persisted through the nation s 1949 split One of the most important mediums for effecting reeducation was television whose strengths were particularly evident in the thousands of television plays that were broadcast in both Germanys in the 1950s and 1960s This book shows how TV dramas transcended state boundaries and notwithstanding the ideological differences between East and West addressed shared issues and themes helping to ease viewers into confronting uncomfortable moral topics Singing Like Germans Kira Thurman, 2021-10-15 In Singing Like Germans Kira Thurman tells the sweeping story of Black musicians in German speaking Europe over more than a century Thurman brings to life the incredible musical interactions and transnational collaborations among people of African descent and white Germans and Austrians Through this compelling history she explores how people reinforced or challenged racial identities in the concert hall Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries audiences assumed the categories of Blackness and Germanness were mutually exclusive Yet on attending a performance of German music by a Black musician many listeners were surprised to discover that German identity is not a biological marker but something that could be learned performed and mastered While Germans and Austrians located their national identity in music championing composers such as Bach Beethoven and Brahms as national heroes the performance of their works by Black musicians complicated the public s understanding of who had the right to play them Audiences wavered between seeing these musicians as the rightful heirs of Austro German musical culture and dangerous outsiders to it Thurman explores the tension between the supposedly transcendental powers of classical music and the global conversations that developed about who could perform it An interdisciplinary and transatlantic history Singing Like Germans suggests that listening to music is not a passive experience but an active process where racial and gendered categories are constantly made and unmade Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J.
Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema
