

The background of the cover is an abstract watercolor painting. It features broad, flowing strokes of color. On the left side, there are deep blue and teal washes. In the center and towards the right, there are vibrant red and orange tones, with some areas appearing more saturated and others more translucent. The edges of the colors are soft and blended, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall effect is a rich, textured composition that serves as a backdrop for the title and author's name.
