Education And National Development A Comparative Perspective Reviews Of United Kingdom Statistical Sources: Resources in Education ,2001 China's Education Aid to Africa Wei Ye,2023-05-31 China's rise as an aid provider in Africa has caught global attention with China's activity being viewed as the projection of soft power of a neo colonialist kind in an international relations context This book which focuses on China's education aid government scholarships training Confucius Institutes dispatched teachers etc reveals a much more complicated picture It outlines how the divide between the Chinese Ministry of Commerce and the Ministry of Education hinders China's soft power projection how much of China's aid is bound up with an education for economic growth outlook mirroring China's own recent experiences of economic development and how China's aid prioritized to reflect the commercial sector's interests is out of step with most international development aid which is dominated by education agendas and the campaigns of international organizations and traditional donors this leaves China easily exposed to the charge of neo colonialism This situation also reveals insufficient knowledge production of China and in South South Cooperation Substantial production of Southern knowledge should recognize the international development cooperation architecture as an open system by which both traditional donors and Southern countries transform Resources in Women's Educational Equity ,1979 Resources in Women's Educational Equity: Special Issue ,1979 Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set G Higher & Adult Education 11 vol set Various,2021-07-14 Mini set G Higher and Adult Education re issues 11 volumes originally published between 1974 and 1992 They discuss and analyze adult education from both theoretical and practical standpoints and look at the challenges facing adult education during the 1970s and 80s as well as examining the history of higher adult education in the UK The mini set includes one volume which although previously available with another publisher and out of print for some years is now available for the first time from Routledge Generation and Gender in Academia B. fully prepared for lives as global citizens is a pressing concern in the contemporary world This book draws on insights from cosmopolitan thought to identify how people from different backgrounds can find common ground By applying cosmopolitan insights to higher education practice Sarah Richardson charts how students can be given the opportunity to experience a truly international education which emphasises deep cultural exchange rather than mere transactional contact Written in an engaging and accessible style the author uses empirical evidence to show that simply studying alongside those different to themselves or studying overseas are inadequate in preparing students to lead the diverse societies of tomorrow Instead the book calls for a coherent approach to higher education that properly prepares students to lead global lives Chapters highlight a number of key aspects of higher education practice from curriculum to pedagogy to educator skills to assessment and demonstrate how these can be reconsidered to give students the opportunity to gain cosmopolitan attributes during their higher education Cosmopolitan Learning for a Global Era will be of great interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students with a particular focus on cosmopolitan thought international education and higher education more broadly as well as university educators and leaders across a wide range of disciplinary areas
