The Technological Teacher Shane Hoon, 2008 We live in a world that is rapidly evolving through technology This evolution has led to a changing cultural ideology and how we function day to day The influences of technology have become ubiquitous in almost every aspect of our current society including in our educational systems As expectations have risen within our classrooms for both students as well as teachers we are seeing more and more educational technology being implemented into academia and at all levels The objective of this thesis is to critically investigate this technological shift in education and to understand what effects it is having on student learning but more importantly teaching practices The overarching questions that this thesis examines are How has the role of the teacher educator changed as a result of new educational technology What are some factors influencing teachers use of technology in the classroom Finally how do teachers generally feel about educational technology While initial research has offered a mixed bag of perspectives and attitudes the initial hypothesis for this project was that the teacher has become more of a facilitator of technology and that some of the art of teaching had been lost The purpose of this study was to investigate this change from the perspective of the teacher in order to better understand the benefits and potential consequences of educational technology The implementation of educational technology has been seen to have presented numerous benefits for many within the education system However what these technologies have also presented various challenges and unintended consequences Some of those challenges being accessibility cost effectiveness lack of support and technological know how credibility of resources and reliability of software and hardware to name a few It has also been recognized that the pressure on teachers to implement technology in the classroom has been heavily influenced by society the administration and institution itself and even through professional pressures from colleagues in the field as well as simply trying to stay up to date in order to remain effective What this has meant for teachers and students within the classroom is a shift in the approach to learning In order to better define the boundaries and limitations of this project only the state of Minnesota was studied Additionally research data was collected from current high school social studies and history teachers and educators as well as other professionals within the field from the state of Minnesota Primary fieldwork for this study was collected through a teacher survey personal interviews and classroom observations The results of the fieldwork demonstrated a greater overall enthusiasm for educational technology than anticipated Nevertheless teachers still expressed concern over what technologies are being introduced the degree to which they are incorporated and the practicality of these resources Technology may be enhancing the learning experience of discovering information in new and creative ways but it may also be unintentionally marginalizing our education system standards and the quality of our teachers Educational technology is a double edged sword We must be careful with how we use it Managing Educational Technology Sandra Schamroth Abrams,Xiaojun Chen,Michael Downton,2018-03-05 Managing Educational Technology examines the ways in which stakeholders from businesses K 12 schools and universities can influence the quality and success of technology integration in primary and secondary classrooms Inspired by their experiences in the field as educators education researchers and technology evaluators the authors present vignettes that highlight the benefits demands and limitations often associated with the introduction and integration of educational technologies to K 12 school environments These examples also underscore the inherent nuances in partnerships among businesses K 12 schools and universities Readers can use these rich examples when considering ways to integrate products into schools as well as when discussing analyzing and evaluating the promises of and challenges in doing so End of chapter questions guide readers to consider alternate actions and identify steps for additional growth which complement the authors practical suggestions to strengthen business school university partnerships Any reader interested in educational technology educational leadership or business will benefit from this insightful investigation of business school university partnerships Instructional Technology and Media for Learning Sharon E. Smaldino,Deborah L. Lowther,Clif Mims,James D. Russell,2019 Specific realistic strategies for integrating technology and media into the PK 12 classroom Using the ASSURE lesson plan model Instructional Technology and Media for Learning 12th Edition demonstrates how to implement a complete range of technology and media formats that can be used to support and enhance teaching and learning Written from the viewpoint of the teacher the text highlights everyday teaching challenges and shows educators practical solutions for incorporating technology and media into their classroom Examples are drawn from elementary and secondary education covering a wide range of content areas The 12th Edition keeps readers up to date with recent innovations in technology and media including mobile Web 2 0 social media copyright issues coding as literacy transdisciplinary learning artificial intelligence and augmented reality Expanded and revised discussions help teachers consider appropriate technology that aligns with content standards while meeting the learning needs of all students Instructional Technology and Media for Learning 12th Edition is also available via Revel TM an interactive learning environment that enables students to read practice and study in one continuous experience Learn more about Revel The Use of Instructional Technology in Schools Mal Lee,Arthur Winzenried,2009 The Use of Instructional Technology in Schools examines teachers use of the major instructional technologies over the last century from the days of silent film radio and slide shows through to the modern interactive whiteboard and the Internet It explores the reasons why so few teachers have used these technologies and why even in today s digital world the most commonly used classroom tools are the pen paper and teaching board The book provides education decision makers with an invaluable insight into the million dollar question What is required to get all teachers across the nation using the appropriate instructional technology as a normal part of everyday teaching Without question student learning is enhanced by adopting these new technologies Until now research on why the majority of teachers use only the most basic tools in the classroom has been scarce The Use of Instructional Technology in Schools examines this phenomenon and most importantly identifies what is required to achieve teachers universal acceptance of instructional technologies Computer Education for Teachers Vicki F. Sharp, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of the student unfamiliar with the use of the computer in the classroom this text is written for undergraduate and graduate education students who want an up to date readable practical and concise introduction to computers for teachers Included in the text are a wealth of classroom lessons that integrate technology into the classroom Teachers and Technology ,1995-10 Shows that helping schools to make the connection between teachers and technology may be one of the most important steps to making the most of past present and future investments in educational technology and in our children s future Addresses issues such as potential of technology in education federal support use of technology to enhance instruction assisting teachers with the daily tasks of teaching what technologies do schools own and how are they used technology related training programs and other related issues Tables and figures Web-based Instruction Badrul Huda Khan, 1997 A cutting edge collection of 59 essays solicited from Web based instructors offering a variety of perspectives notions and experiences in the practice of virtual teaching The compendium introduces the evolution and status of distance learning critical issues in Web based learning environments such as the similarities and differences between Web based and traditional classrooms specific discussions on designing learning activities and electronic textbooks an evaluation of delivery systems for instruction and case studies of Web based courses from kindergarten and beyond to the instruction of literature astronomy and foreign languages Includes illustrations Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Technology in the Classroom Tom King, 1997-01-01 This collection of articles address three themes the growing research supporting the belief that technology in education makes a difference for student learning innovative ways to use technology in teaching and firsthand accounts of schools that have successfully implemented technology in their classrooms Through effective use educators can implement technology in ways that transform classroom learning activities enhance idea development and individual expression promote peer collaboration and problem solving and foster students unique learning styles The collection includes the following articles Achieving Technological Equity and Equal Access to the Learning Tools of the 21st Century Curman L Gaines Willie Johnson and D Thomas King Linking Students to the Infosphere Boris Berenfeld Technologies as Tools for Transforming Learning Environments Michael Hopkins Can Integrated Instructional Technology Transform the Classroom Lani M Van Dusen and Blaine R Worthen Communication through Multimedia in an Elementary Classroom Elizabeth M Riddle Virtual Reality and Multiple Intelligences Potentials for Higher Education Hilary McLellan Crossroads to the World Dawn L Morden Engaging Students in a Knowledge Society Marlene Scardamalia and Carl Bereiter The Saturn School of Tomorrow David A Bennett and D Thomas King and It s Elementary Internet in a K 5 School Susan W Hixson Contains an index Author SWC The Connected School Barbara Means, William R. Penuel, Christine

Padilla,2001-10-08 Take an intimate look at six technology using high schools and gain useful insight regarding how computer and Internet technology can best support teaching and learning The Connected School offers school administrators leaders and teachers a behind the scenes look at what happens when a school becomes connected not just in terms of computers and networking but in terms of teacher collaboration and support as well Based on the real life experiences of six connected schools the authors make a compelling case for the appropriate use of technology and show how it can greatly enhance students learning experiences and further their educational goals even in challenging urban settings Supporting Learning with Technology Joy L. Egbert,2011-11-21 This is the eBook of the printed book and may not include any media website access codes or print supplements that may come packaged with the bound book The author has written a new and unique text for courses in Computers in Education or Instructional Media and Technology The purpose of this text is to address what technology teachers should know and be able to do but the focus is on learners and learning rather than on the technology itself The book is unique in that it presents the students learning goals first rather than the technology tool thereby focusing on the learner and the learning rather than the technology The examples throughout the chapters present ideas for tasks that can be completed with a variety of tools rather than one specific tool that teachers may not have access to Each chapter includes a brief summary of research from educational technology learning theory and other areas to build a foundation for chapter examples and activities The chapters also include examples for learning in a variety of contexts and content areas and can be applied easily to teaching other ideas and subjects A unique chapter Chapter 9 on teacher productivity helps support future educators in their everyday tasks The book illustrates what technology enhanced learning can be like today and prepares teachers and administrators for what may come tomorrow Some of the pedagogical features in the book include Cases These appear at the beginning of each chapter and provide a framework for the chapter discussion that follows These cases are compelling snapshots from real classrooms that help students to connect educational concepts to the real world Related questions within and at the end of each chapter encourage the reader to think critically about the material and its related application to the classroom Meet the Needs of Today s Students feature Each chapter contains margin notes to help the readers address the learning needs of ALL students including those with diverse needs and English Language Learners Meeting the Standards feature This feature shows how the National Educational Technology Standards connect to the learning goal of each chapter Additional state standards are listed on the book s companion website Tool CloseUp feature These boxes explore the features of technology tools discussed in the chapter in more detail Learning Activities feature Provide opportunities to apply the chapter s guidelines and technology tool discussions to a variety of learning activities related to all grade levels and content areas
