Edward Steichen Edward Steichen, Istituto di Cultura Santa Maria delle Grazie, 1997 The photographs in this volume were selected from the collection of the prestigious Royal Photographic Society in Bath England home to 80 Steichen photographs Steichen's relationship with the RPS was turbulent as the innovative photographer repeatedly challenged the conservative Society In 1903 Steichen took aim at the formulaic photographs favored by the Society writing Some day there may be invented a machine that needs but to be wound up and sent roaming o'er hill and dale through fields and meadows by babbling brooks and shady woods in short a machine that will discriminatingly select its subject and by means of a skilful arrangement of springs and screws compose its motif expose the plate develop print and even mount and frame the result of its excursion so that there will remain nothing for us to do but to send it to the Royal Photographic Society's exhibition and gratefully receive the Royal Medal
