Transnational Commercial Disputes in an Age of Anti-Globalism and Pandemic Sundaresh Menon, Anselmo Reyes, 2023-01-12 In this book, senior judges and academics at the forefront of transnational commercial law in Asia, Australia, Europe, the US and elsewhere reflect on the implications of anti-globalism and the COVID-19 pandemic on international commercial dispute resolution. ICDR The chapters consider: 1. What types of cross-border commercial disputes will arise in the future and what resources will be needed to respond to them in a cost-effective, time-efficient and equitable manner? 2. Is there still merit in a multilateral approach to transnational commercial law and ICDR despite the closing of borders, the rise of protectionism and the disruption of global supply chains? 3. What reforms and innovations should courts, arbitrators and mediators contemplate when navigating the post-pandemic landscape? 4. Can the accelerated use of remote technology in ICDR, as prompted by the pandemic, be leveraged to enhance access to justice for all? With a focus on the current crisis in globalism, as well as the associated problems of ensuring justice and fairness in the resolution of cross-border commercial and investment state disputes along the Belt and Road and elsewhere, the book will be an invaluable resource for academics, judges and practitioners alike.

Combining Mediation and Arbitration in International Commercial Dispute Resolution Dilyara Nigmatullina, 2018-06-28 Securing fast, inexpensive and enforceable redress is vital for the development of international commerce. In a changing international commercial dispute resolution landscape, the combined use of mediation and arbitration has emerged as a dispute resolution approach which offers these benefits. However, to date, there has been little agreement on several aspects of the combined use of processes, which the literature often explains by reference to the practitioner's legal culture and there is debate as to how appropriate it is for the same neutral to conduct both mediation and arbitration. Identifying the main ways of addressing concerns associated with the same neutral conducting both mediation and arbitration. Same neutral arb med arb. This book examines how effectively these methods achieve the goal of fast, inexpensive and enforceable dispute resolution, evaluating to what extent the perception and use of the same neutral arb med arb depends on the practitioner's legal culture, arguing that this is not a one-size-fits-all process. Presenting an empirical study of the combined use of mediation and arbitration in international commercial dispute resolution, this book synthesises existing ways of addressing concerns associated with the same neutral arb med arb to provide recommendations on how to enhance the use of combinations in the future.

Mediation and Commercial Contract Law Maryam

Salehijam, 2020-12-10. There is an urgent need to better understand the legal issues pertaining to alternative dispute resolution (ADR), particularly in relation to mediation clauses. Despite the promotion of mediation by dispute resolution providers, policy makers and judges, use of mediation remains low. In particular, problems arise when parties lack certainty regarding the legal effect of a mediation clause and the potential uncertainty regarding the binding nature of agreements to pursue mediation is problematic and threatens the growth of ADR. This book closely examines the importance and complexity of mediation clauses in commercial contracts to remedy this persistent uncertainty. Using comparative law methods and detailed empirical research, it explores the creation of a comprehensive framework for the mediation clause. Providing valuable insight into the process of ADR and mediation, this book will be of interest to academics, law makers, law students, in-house counsel, lawyers as well as parties interested in drafting enforceable mediation clauses.

Good Faith in

International Commercial Arbitration Sabrina Pearson-Wenger, 2024-07-15. From the perspective of users of international commercial arbitration, the uncertainties surrounding the application of good faith by an arbitral tribunal create an unwelcome unpredictability. Acknowledging this prevalent situation, this book is the first to study in depth the available international arbitral awards that have applied good faith, thus providing detailed guidance on how this notion is and can be applied by tribunals in international commercial arbitration. Moreover, the author proposes a set of deeply informed guidelines for the future application of good faith by arbitral tribunals to both the parties' contract and the arbitration agreement. This book provides a comprehensive description of the role and scope of good faith under governing laws in key jurisdictions: England, New York, Switzerland, France, Germany, China, Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia and Canada, as well as under the CISG, the UNIDROIT Principles and other uniform law and soft law instruments. The book greatly clarifies the source and role of good faith with respect to the following issues surrounding the arbitration agreement: formal validity of the arbitration agreement, incorporation of the arbitration agreement by reference, interpretation of the arbitration agreement, capacity and power of the parties to arbitrate, extension of an arbitration agreement to a non-signatory party, pre-arbitration requirements to negotiate or mediate and performance of the arbitration agreement. Proposed guidelines for the application of good faith to each of these issues are included along with useful figures summarizing the content of the obligations to negotiate or mediate in good faith prior to resorting to arbitration as well as the obligation to arbitrate in good faith. By analysing the role and scope of good faith under different national and non national laws this book will prove of inestimable value not only by providing invaluable insight into the recourse to good faith by arbitral tribunals but also by providing guidance on how good faith should be applied to the parties contract in international commercial arbitration. Arbitrators as well as users of arbitration will welcome the clarity on how good faith is applied to the various issues surrounding the arbitration agreement and in particular to the pre arbitration requirements to negotiate or mediate as well as the performance of the arbitration agreement.

Mediation in International Commercial and Investment Disputes Catharine Titi, Katia Fach Gómez, 2019-07-30

Until now the resolution of international commercial and investment disputes has been dominated almost exclusively by international arbitration. But that is changing. Whilst they may be complementary mechanisms international mediation and conciliation are now coming to the fore. Mediation rules that were in disuse gather momentum and dispute settlement centres are introducing new mediation rules. The European Union is encouraging international mediation in both the commercial and investment spheres. The 2019 Singapore Mediation Convention of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law UNCITRAL is aiming to ensure enforcement of international commercial settlement agreements resulting from mediation. The first investor State disputes are mediated under the International Bar Association IBA rules. The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID's conciliation mechanism is resorted to more often than in the past. The International Chamber of Commerce ICC has recently administered its first mediation case based on a bilateral investment treaty and a new training market on mediation is flourishing. Mediation in Commercial and Investment Disputes brings together a line up of outstanding highly qualified experts from academia, mediation and arbitration institutions and international legal practice to address this highly topical complex subject from a variety of angles.

E-Commerce: Law and Jurisdiction: Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business - Special Dennis Campbell, 2003-02-01

The special issue of the Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business deals with the very topical subject of e commerce. This is an area that has seen an explosion of interest in recent years but since the increase in the use of the Internet as a vehicle for conducting business transactions has been so rapid the law has again fallen behind particularly in the areas of regulation and jurisdiction. The situation is changing however with the introduction of both national and international legislation dealing with issues and relating to inter alia data protection, privacy, electronic signatures, consumer protection and morality. The authors in this volume provide commentaries on the most recent developments in various jurisdictions including the approach of the European Union to the problems raised by e commerce. They discuss the difficulties in relation to jurisdiction arising from the global nature of Internet and the possibilities for dispute resolution between multi national parties to an electronic transaction. The topic is obviously one that will require much attention in the coming years and one which will need strict regulation if electronic commerce is destined to become the trading medium of the future
