Osborne, 2015-07-31 Documentation for Physical Therapist Practice A Clinical Decision Making Approach provides the framework for successful documentation. It is synchronous with Medicare standards as well as the American Physical Therapy Association's recommendations for defensible documentation. It identifies documentation basics which can be readily applied to a broad spectrum of documentation formats including paper based and electronic systems. This key resource utilizes a practical clinical decision making approach and applies this framework to all aspects of documentation. This text emphasizes how the common and standard language of the Guide to Physical Therapist Practice and the International Classification of Functioning Disability and Health ICF model can be integrated with a physical therapist's clinical reasoning process and a physical therapist assistant's skill set to produce successful documentation. Includes content on documentation formations: Initial Evaluations, Re-examination Notes, Daily Notes, Conclusion of the Episode of Care, Summaries, Home Exercise Program, Reviews. All the important issues related to style types of documentation and utilization of documentation. Covers documentation relevant in different settings: inpatient, home health, skilled nursing facility, outpatient. Helps students learn how to report findings and demonstrate an appropriate interpretation of results. Includes up to date information in line with APTA Guidelines for Defensible Documentation, World Health Organization International Classification of Functioning Disability and Health Model and Medicare. Reviews electronic documentation, ICD 9, ICD 10 and CPT codes. Includes important chapters on Interprofessional Communication, Legal Aspects, Principles of Measurement. Documentation Basics Mia Erickson, Mia L. Erickson, 2012. Complete and accurate documentation is one of the most important skills for a physical therapist assistant to develop and use effectively. The new Second Edition of Documentation Basics: A Guide for the Physical Therapist Assistant continues the path of teaching the student and clinician documentation from A to Z. Mia Erickson and Rebecca McKnight have updated this Second Edition to reflect changes of the American Physical Therapy Association and the ever evolving profession. Updated inside Documentation Basics: A Guide for the Physical Therapist Assistant Second Edition. The discussion on integrating disablement into documentation. The discussion on how a PTA can show medical necessity and need for skilled care. The discussion on using documentation to communicate with other providers. Writing the assessment and plan to coincide with the initial documentation. Sample notes completed on forms. More examples and practice including physical agents, school based services, paediatrics, traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury and interventions consistent with the Guide to Physical Therapist Practice. Medicare reimbursement in different settings. The importance of consistent, reliable and valid measurements. How to improve communication and consistency between documentation by the PT, the PTA. The discussion on disablement has also been updated, shifting away from the Nagi Model toward the International Classification of Functioning Disability and Health ICF. In addition, the PTA Normative Model has been integrated throughout to include more information on clinical decision making. New inside Documentation Basics: A Guide for the Physical Therapist Assistant Second Edition. Navigating the PT plan of care: A step by step model for PTAs to use as they navigate the initial PT.
