Parliament. House of Lords. Committee on the Dignity of a Peer of the Realm, 1829 Los Angeles's Chester Place Don Sloper, 2006 Hidden behind massive 120 year old gates a few blocks south of downtown Los Angeles is Chester Place the oldest gated community in the city Created as an enclave of the wealthy and powerful in 1899 the remarkably intact stately mansions of this historic neighborhood were once home to the movers and shakers of politics industry and entertainment Beside century old palm trees the former mansion of oil industry pioneer Edward Doheny stands as the centerpiece of the neighborhood at No 8 Chester Place which was purchased in 1901 His family dominated the neighborhood for the next 57 years Located side by side with St James Park in what is today called the West Adams District at the northern extents of University Park containing the University of Southern California Chester Place has been home to the campus of Mount St Mary's College for a generation The Rise of Alchemy in Fourteenth-Century England Jonathan Hughes, 2012-03-08 The first book to explore the importance of alchemy and its links to the occult in the period between 1320 and 1400 Alchemists didn't just try to turn metals into gold they studied planetary influences on metals and people refined plants and minerals in the search for medicines This book illustrates how this branch of thought became more popular as the practical and theoretical knowledge of alchemists spread throughout England The Wars of the Roses Christine Carpenter, 1997-11-13 This is a new interpretation of English politics during the extended period beginning with the majority of Henry VI in c 1437 up to the accession of Henry VII in 1509 The later fifteenth century in England is a somewhat baffling and apparently incoherent period which historians and history students have found consistently difficult to handle The large scale revisionism inspired by the classic work of K B McFarlane led to the first real work on politics both national and local but has left the period in a disjointed state much material has been unearthed but without any real sense of direction or coherence This book places the events of the century within a clearly delineated framework of constitutional structures practices and expectations in an attempt to show the meaning of the apparently frenetic and purposeless political events which occurred within that framework and which sometimes breached it At the same time it takes cognisance of all the work that has been done on the period including recent and innovative work on Henry VI Journal of the Executive Proceedings of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, 1941 Journal of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Albany Albany County (N.Y.). Board of Supervisors, 1922
