Egyptian Philosophers Ancient African Voices From Imhotep To Akhenaten:

The Egyptian Philosophers Molefi Kete Asante, 2000 Traditional Eurocentric thought assumes that Greece was the origin of civilization This book dispels this and other myths by showing that there is a body of knowledge that preceded Greek philosophy The author documents how the great pyramids were built in 2800 B C 2 100 years before Greek civilization The popular myth of Hippocrates being the father of medicine is dispelled by the fact that Hippocrates studied the works of Imhotep the true father of medicine and mentioned his name in his Hippocratic oath Eleven famous African scholars who preceded Greek philosophers are profiled Ptahhotep Kagemni Duauf Amenhotep Amenemope Imhotep Amenemhat Merikare Sehotepibre Khunanup and Akhenaten These scholars ideas on a variety of topics are discussed including the emergence of science and reason the moral order books and education and the clash of classes The Egyptian Philosophers Molefi Kete Asante, 2000 From Imhotep to Akhenaten Molefi Kete Asante, 2004 Encyclopedia of African Religion Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2009 Collects almost five hundred entries that cover the African response to spirituality taboos ethics sacred space and objects Africana Philosophy from Ancient Egypt to the Nineteenth Century Peter Adamson, Chike Jeffers, 2025-03-07 In this latest instalment of the series A History of Philosophy Without Any Gaps Peter Adamson and Chike Jeffers delve into the fascinating world of Africana Philosophy Africana Philosophy from Ancient Egypt to the Nineteenth Century is the first of two volumes in the History of Philosophy Without Any Gaps series to bring readers the story of Africana philosophy This diverse topic is defined as philosophy emerging from and distinctively related to Africa or the African diaspora The story starts at the very beginning by asking what it would mean to engage philosophically with evidence left by prehistoric peoples of Africa and proceeds to discuss the philosophical traditions of ancient Egypt late ancient and early modern Ethiopia and Islamic philosophy in West Africa A number of chapters then explore the idea of philosophy in African oral traditions considering the methodological debates that have raged between African philosophers like John Mbiti Paulin Hountondji and Henry Odera Oruka Peter Adamson and Chike Jeffers also consider philosophical responses to the situation brought about by the transatlantic slave trade and the early colonization of Africa Starting from early figures like Anton Wilhelm Amo and Phillis Wheatley and the ideas that drove the Haitian Revolution extensive discussion is then given to Africana philosophy of the nineteenth century The incendiary ideas of David Walker the nuanced rhetoric of Frederick Douglass and the clashing approaches of Booker T Washington and W E B Du Bois are among the highlights here Significant attention is given to female thinkers like Maria W Stewart Sojourner Truth Anna Julia Cooper and Ida B Wells The coverage is also geographically diverse with chapters on figures who worked not only in Africa and the United States but also Brazil Canada Britain France and the Caribbean African American Studies Jeanette R Davidson, 2010-10-19 This book presents the diverse expansive nature of African American Studies and its characteristic interdisciplinarity It is intended for use with undergraduate beginning graduate students in African American Studies American Studies and Ethnic Studie

Understanding African American Rhetoric Ronald L. Jackson II, Elaine B. Richardson, 2014-05-22 This is an extraordinarily well balanced collection of essays focused on varied expressions of African American Rhetoric it also is a critical antidote to a preoccupation with Western Rhetoric as the arbiter of what counts for effective rhetoric Rather than impose Western terminology on African and African American rhetoric the essays in this volume seek to illumine rhetoric from within its own cultural expression thereby creating an understanding grounded in the culture's values The consequence is a richly detailed and well researched set of essays The contribution of African American rhetoric can no longer be rendered invisible through neglect of its tradition The essays in this volume neither seek to displace Western Rhetoric nor function as an uncritical paen to Afrocentricity and Africology This volume is both timely and essential timely in advancing a better understanding of the richly textured history that is expressed through African American discourse and essential as a counterpoint to the hegemonic influence of Greek and Roman rhetoric as the origin of rhetorical theory and practice Written in the spirit of a critical rhetoric this collection eschews traditional focus on public address and instead offers a rich array of texts in musical and other forms that address publics

Psychology of Blacks Thomas A Parham, Adisa Ajamu, Joseph L. White, 2015-10-14 For courses in Introduction to Psychology African American Psychology African American Studies Multicultural Counseling and Cross Cultural Counseling and Psychotherapy This text highlights the limitations of traditional psychological theories and approaches when applied to people of African descent It provides information on how the African Centered Perspective is defined as well as how it operates in the context of the African American family with regard to identity development education mental health research and managing contemporary issues It links the context of African American life to the traditions values and spiritual essence of their African ancestors in an attempt to acknowledge the African worldview and assist the African American community in addressing some of the challenges they continue to face

Travel and the Pan African Imagination Tracy Keith Flemming, 2021-09-02 Travel and the Pan African Imagination explores the African Atlantic world as a productive theater or space where modernity racialized dominance and racialized resistance took form The book stresses the importance of placing three Atlantic figures the Charleston South Carolina based armed resistance leader Denmark Vesey the West African emigration advocate Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Christian missionary and teacher in Liberia as well as the United States Alexander Crummell within an Atlantic context and as African world community figures between the late eighteenth and early twentieth centuries The book also examines the religious origins of Black Power ideology and modern Pan Africanism as products of the intense dialogue within the African world community about concepts of modernity progress and civilization Tracy Keith Flemming identifies how travel and social mobility led to the generation of an ever more complex and dynamic Atlantic world and of a fluid and adaptive African world community imagination for those figures who were forced to operate within and against a racially framed universe The vexing social position and symbolic figure of the African was central to the dilemmas facing the racialized imagination of African world community figures and the discipline of Africology Re-engaging the African Diasporas Charles Quist-Adade, Wendy Royal, 2016-08-17 Re engaging the African Diasporas Pan Africanism in the Age of Globalization is the second volume in the Kwame Nkrumah International Conference series and brings together twenty selected papers presented at the Third Kwame Nkrumah International Conference held at Kwantlen Polytechnic University on August 19 21 2014 Two premises inform this volume 1 If the history of slavery and its vestiges divided and continue to divide the continent and its Diasporas modern technology should be harnessed to bridge that divide and 2 the continent's development is a boon to the development of what the African Union has dubbed Africa's Sixth Region The book threads together papers that seek to give academic and intellectual impetus to tie the continent's development to that of the African Diaspora The goal is to end the inertia and inward looking on the part of scholars and academics in both Africa and African International or Global Africa and re engage one another in more productive ways By harnessing the enormous resources available in our internet age and riding the cresting wave of globalization the task of re engagement will be vastly enhanced and the debates and discussions in this volume will serve to facilitate this re engagement A main highlight of the conference was a special tribute to Nelson Mandela to honour his death in December 2013 and celebrate 20 years of South African independence In these papers scholars examine Mandela's role in the transition of South Africa from a racist state to a democratic nation They critically examine how the ANC's policies have impacted post Apartheid South Africa and question what alternatives remain for the future Africa Reimagined Hlumelo Biko, 2021-01-15 Steve Biko argued that the most potent weapon in the hands of the oppressor is the mind of the oppressed Hlumelo Biko unpacks this in its practical import and shows how changing the situation can transform Africa Internationalisation of Educational Administration and Leadership Curriculum Eugenie A. Samier, Eman A. Elkaleh, Waheed Hammad, 2021-08-23 In light of a new wave of cultural mobility how must educational leaders respond to the challenges of internationalising their curricula and accommodating diversity This timely project bridges a gap in the field of educational administration by showcasing the development of curricular internationalisation across several countries Conversations in Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2009-10-02 Conversations in Philosophy Crossing the Boundaries consists of essays that revolve around the question of the nature and meaning of philosophy even as it demonstrates philosophy's significance and relevance to some fundamental human problems and issues The essays present diverse views of what philosophy might be and might aspire to be with contributors being influenced by a wide range of philosophical approaches and traditions The conversations also cut across disciplinary boundaries to interrogate and utilize ideas taken from ethics epistemology metaphysics literary studies cultural studies and the sociology of science Traversing regional boundaries the essays show philosophical analysis at work in exploring some issues pertinent to African Caribbean European and American experiences even while not ignoring Asian traditions The collection presents interesting and intriguing views on how philosophical inquiry can illuminate various pressing problems development conflict the discriminating preservation of worthwhile traditions and the prevalence of apathy It also reflects the vitality and multifaceted nature of philosophical discourse in grappling with live issues Conversations in Philosophy is a comprehensive balanced and unique anthology of readings capturing the diversity of philosophical investigation Science and Religion Claudia May, Channon Visscher, 2023-10-24 Science and Religion Perspectives Across Disciplines interweaves science technology engineering and math STEM fields with the arts humanities theology and psychology to cultivate discussion on science and religion alongside biblical interpretation This anthology is paradoxically ecumenical for it embraces unifying and disparate positions without being prescriptive or exclusive It is both synergistic and disruptive Building on this premise the Advent and Easter stories are examined through praxes from STEM theology and psychology Taken together this anthology allows for connection between disciplines by creating community in the midst of differing approaches to the study of science and religion A Companion to African-American Studies Jane Anna Gordon, Lewis Gordon, 2008-04-15 A Companion to African American Studies is an exciting and comprehensive re appraisal of the history and future of African American studies Contains original essays by expert contributors in the field of African American Studies Creates a groundbreaking re appraisal of the history and future of the field Includes a series of reflections from those who established African American Studies as a bona fide academic discipline Captures the dynamic interaction of African American Studies with other fields of inquiry Clinical Trials and the African Person Ike Iyioke, 2018-05-23 Clinical Trials and the African Person aims to position the African notion of the self person within the clinical trials context As opposed to autonomy based principlism this other regarding communalist perspective is the preferred alternative model This tactic draws further attention to the inadequacy of the principlist approach particularly in multicultural settings It also engenders a rethink stimulates interest and re assesses the failed assumptions of universal ethical principles As a novel attempt that runs against much of the prevailing Euro American intellectual mood this approach strives to introduce the African viewpoint by making explicit the import of the self in a re contextualized arena meaning within the community and a given milieu Thus research ethics must go beyond autonomy based considerations for the individual to rightly embed him/her within his/her community and the environment Angolan Political Thought Luis Cordeiro-Rodrigues, 2024-02-08 Angolan Political Thought introduces anticolonial thinkers whose writings on colonialism and liberation have been instrumental in the formation of Angolan identity It focuses on the political nature of these thinkers and how their work has impacted Angolan political reality Luis Cordeiro Rodrigues both introduces and critically analyzes the thought of Queen Njinga M'Pinto de Andrade Agostinho Neto and Pepetela and systematically addresses five important topics in Angolan political thought Firstly it gives a general introduction to African political philosophy and explains the place of Angolan political thought in this Secondly it explains how different Angolan thinkers have conceptualized colonialism and its effects on the global Black community Thirdly the book surveys what key Angolan thinkers have identified as legitimate and effective tools of liberation and resistance from colonialism For example it addresses the place of poetry for liberation as well as the justification for war against colonial powers Fourth this book will explain the different theories that Africa and in particular African identity consists of Finally it will look at Angolan theories of distributive justice and compensation for historical injustices Uwenzi David O. Akombo, Baruti I. Katembo, Kmt G. Shockley, 2015-12-30 UWENZI The Pan African Factor A 21st Century View seeks to facilitate a much needed and provocative 21st century dialogue on optimizing the global linkage networking and appreciation of African peoples resources culture and or interests i e Pan Africanism As a focus point the book posits and explains the need and rationale for Africa and its Diaspora to become reciprocal resources for each other The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng, 2021-04-26 The public lynching of George Floyd re exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory Current Research in Egyptology 2005 Rachel Mairs, Alice Stevenson, 2007-03-30 The sixth annual Current Research in Egyptology symposium took place from 6th 8th January 2005 at the University of Cambridge Although the topics covered by the papers were many and varied if there is a general theme it would be that of exploring the borders and parameters of the discipline of Egyptology

Egyptian Philosophers Ancient African Voices From Imhotep To Akhenaten: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
