Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz,2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Señor Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura José Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others After Franco's death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenábar's Thesis José Luis García's The Grandfather and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and Volver In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80s and 90s and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying

The Other in Contemporary Migrant Cinema Guido Rings, 2016-01-08 As a rapidly aging continent Europe increasingly depends on the successful integration of migrants Unfortunately contemporary political and media discourses observe and frequently also support the development of nationalist eurosceptic and xenophobic reactions to immigration and growing multiethnicity Confronting this trend European cinema has developed and disseminated new transcultural and postcolonial alternatives that might help to improve integration and community cohesion in Europe and this book investigates these alternatives in order to identify examples of good practices that can enhance European stability While the cinematic spectrum is as wide and open as most notions of Europeaness the films examined share a fundamental interest in the Other In this qualitative film analysis approach particular consideration is given to British French German and Spanish productions and a comparison of multiethnic conviviality in Chicano cinema

European Nightmares Patricia Allmer, Emily Brick, David Huxley, 2012 Essays focusing on European horror cinema from 1945 to the present Features new contributions by distinguished international scholars exploring British French Spanish Italian German and Northern European and Eastern European horror cinema Emigrant Dreams, Immigrant Borders Raquel Vega-Durán, 2016-09-30 Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders Migrants Transnational Encounters and Identity in Spain offers a new approach to the cultural history of contemporary Spain examining the ways in which Spain's own self-conceptions are changing and multiplying in response to migrants from Latin America and Africa. In the last twenty-five years, Spain has gone from being a country of net emigration to one in which immigrants make up nearly 12 percent of the population. This rapid growth has made migrants increasingly visible in both mass media and in Spanish visual and literary culture. This book examines the origins of media discourses on immigration and takes the analysis of contemporary Spanish culture as its primary framework while also drawing insights from sociology and history. Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders introduces readers to a wide range of recent films, journals, novels, photography, paintings, and music to reconsider contemporary Spain through its varied encounters with migrants. It follows the stages of the migrant's own journey beginning outside Spanish territory, continuing across the border either at the barbed wire fences of Ceuta and Melilla or the waters of the Atlantic or the Strait of Gibraltar, and then considers what happens to migrants after they arrive and settle in Spain. Each chapter analyzes one of these stages in order to illustrate the complexity of contemporary Spanish identity. This examination of Spanish culture shows how Spain is evolving into a new space of imagination, one that can no longer be defined without the migrant, a space in which there is no unified identity but rather a new self-understanding is being born. Vega-Durán both places Spain in a larger European context and draws attention to some of the features that from a comparative perspective make the Spanish case interesting and often unique. She argues that Spain cannot be understood today outside the Transatlantic and Mediterranean spaces, both real and imaginary, where Spaniards and migrants meet. Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders offers a timely study of present-day Spain and makes an original contribution to the vibrant debates about multiculturalism and nation formation that are taking place.

Alejandro Amenábar Barry Jordan, 2019-01-04 Since the release of his first feature in 1996, Alejandro Amenábar has become the golden boy of Spanish filmmaking, a bankable star director whose brand virtually guarantees quality, big audiences, and domestic box office success. He has directed three of the highest-grossing movies in Spanish film history and has enjoyed enormous international and critical acclaim, including an Oscar for Best Foreign Film for Mar Adentro (The Sea Inside) in 2004. This book is the first full-length study in English of Amenábar's shorts and feature films. It provides detailed analysis of his engagement with popular film genres as the basis for an auteur cinema and incorporates a reappraisal of his auteurism as fundamentally decentred and shared. An essential resource for students, scholars, and fans of Amenábar, the book will also appeal to a wider readership, including professionals in the film media and culture industries as well as those who have a general interest in the best of Spanish, European, and world cinema.

El actual cine poético hispanoamericano e ibero-peninsular Júlia González de Canales Carcereny, 2022-10-10 Este libro busca contribuir al impulso del estudio del actual cine poético hispanoamericano e ibero peninsular analizando aquellos modos contra narrativos que enfatizan las particularidades formales del medio audiovisual a la vez que rebajan el desarrollo del contenido desplazando la acción fuera de plano El presente libro parte asimismo de la premisa que la modernidad cinematográfica constituye el marco de referencia teórico artístico al que muchos directores de cine poético recurren para elaborar sus propuestas formales Por ello se propone también analizar las estrategias de composición vinculadas a la tradición cinematográfica de la modernidad que han sido críticamente reexaminadas en las películas producidas en el ámbito hispanoamericano e ibero peninsular durante las primeras décadas del siglo XXI This book explores the shared approach to Spanish and Latin American filmmakers with experimental film practices and strategies of composition and links these to a tradition of cinematic modernity that is being critically reassessed by these filmmakers By adopting a decidedly transnational perspective the author investigates the distinctive elements of contemporary poetic cinematographic productions that shape present day Hispanic art house cinematic productions Thus the book reassesses the notion of poetic cinema as an interstitial film practice The author first examines the multiple meanings that the notion of poetry in cinema has historically had Second she explores how Hispanic cinema inherited the artistic principles of European cinematic modernity blending them with the Latin American cinematographic tradition of neorealist influence
