Eye Of The Heart:

The Eye in the Heart Tanith Lee, 2000 The Senses of Scripture Yael Avrahami, 2012-06-15 The Senses of Scripture reveals the essence of biblical epistemology the ways in which ancient Israelites thought about and used their sensorium The theoretical introduction demonstrates that scholars need to liberate themselves from the Western bias that holds a pentasensory paradigm and prioritises the sense of sight The discussion of the biblical material demonstrates that biblical scholars should follow a similar path Through examination of associative and contextual patterns the author reaches a septasensory model including sight hearing speech kinaesthesia touch taste and smell It is further demonstrated that the senses according to the HB are a divinely created physical experience which symbolised human ability to act in a sovereign manner in the world Despite the lack of a biblical Hebrew term sense it seems that at times the merism sight and hearing serves that matter Finally the book discusses the longstanding dispute regarding the primacy of sight vs hearing and claims that although there is no strict sensory hierarchy evident in the text sight holds a central space in biblical epistemology collaboration and culmination of many steps Sometimes our steps move us forward or backwards Sometimes we take steps to the left or to the right Our goal should be that our steps move us toward a definite destination We hope that our steps are taking us nearer to that which will make us stronger better or even be greater people As our steps are crucial our end point is as well If we want to have the life that God has in store for us we need to be walking toward Him daily God has a life of peace and joy for us Not problem free but one of peace Not without tribulations or trouble but one of triumph In order for us to possess this life God has to be our end destination He has to be the one that we are focusing and He has to be the one that we are depending upon In order for us to grow in the Lord and step closer to Him we must be intentional It would be wonderful if we could just wake up and be spiritually stronger than we have ever been before But that is not reality We must be systematic and strategic if we are going to grow in the Lord This book will help and lead you to grow spiritually Jesus said If we are to follow Him we are to take up our cross daily One Step Closer is a tool that will not only strengthen us now it will impact our eternity Chamber's Cyclopædia of English Literature Robert Chambers,1902 Study & Stage William Archer,1899
