Elliott, 2017-09-20 In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus of Nazareth makes reference to one of the oldest beliefs in the ancient world the malignity of an Evil Eye The Holy Scriptures in their original languages contain no less than twenty four references to the Evil Eye although this is obscured by most modern Bible translations John H Elliott s Beware the Evil Eye describes this belief and associated practices its history its voluminous appearances in ancient cultures and the extensive research devoted to it over the centuries in order to unravel this enigma for readers who have never heard of the Evil Eye and its presence in the Bible The four volumes cover the ancient world from Sumer to the Middle Ages

The Rivalrous Renaissance Bradley J. Irish, 2024-12-10 Envy and jealousy are the emotions that fuel interpersonal rivalry and interpersonal rivalry is a cornerstone of literature Emerging from growing scholarly interest in the history of emotion The Rivalrous Renaissance is the first full length study of envy and jealousy in Renaissance England The book introduces readers both to the cultural dynamics of affective rivalry in the period and to how these crucial feelings inspired literary works across a wide range of genres by luminary authors such as Philip Sidney Edmund Spenser Mary Wroth William Shakespeare and John Milton Early modern concepts of envy and jealousy were more actively theorized as central components of human experience than is typical today Bradley J Irish argues that literature is the key domain where this Renaissance theorization of affective rivalry was brought to life Poetry drama and narrative prose created the conditions for these concepts to become most socially meaningful simulating the interpersonal experiences in which the emotions practically manifest This volume will appeal to scholars interested in the history of emotion and affect as well as more broadly to scholars of the literature and social dynamics of early modern England and to undergraduate and graduate students in specialized seminars

Synonyms Discriminated Charles John Smith, 1910 The Transformative Materiality of Meaning-Making David Parkin, 2021-08-18 This book explores verbal and non verbal communication from a social anthropological viewpoint drawing on ethnographic data from fieldwork in East Africa It gives an overview of developments since the 1960s in the anthropology of language use and how these have influenced the author's thinking The volume makes the argument that language and other forms of communication involve semiotic transactions between interlocutors that such communicative exchanges do more than convey information and that they give identity to the recipients of such transactions who reciprocate by defining speakers The density and situational totality of such semiotic exchange can moreover be regarded as a kind of materiality both in terms of their impact on social interaction and in how interlocutors interact bodily as well as verbally among themselves
