Ezra Pound's Confucian Translations Mary Paterson Cheadle,1997 Provides bold insights into Pound s Fascism

Ezra Pound's Confucian Translation Mary Paterson Cheadle,1987     Ezra Pound and Confucianism Feng

Lan,2011-11-01 In Ezra Pound and Confucianism Feng Lan offers the first study of Ezra Pound s project of establishing a Confucian humanism as an alternative to Western modernism While Pound scholars are familiar with the American poet s commitment to Confucianism the question of how Confucianism systematically shaped Pound s thoughts has not been convincingly answered Lan shows that when confronted with what appeared to him a dehumanising modern world Pound discovered in Confucianism possible solutions to issues that he encountered in language politics and religion which Western intellectual tradition as a whole had failed to provide By integrating Confucian doctrines with received ideas from Western tradition Pound developed a humanist discourse and brought it to bear on the historical conditions of his time The result was a discourse characterized primarily by the following beliefs the human mind as the source of creation the individual s moral will as the basis of truth and social order the human partnership with the world of nature the self perfectibility of human beings and their innate capability for internal transcendence in spiritual life Lan examines the strategies with which Pound reconstructed Confucianism into a systematic modern discourse focusing on his controversial translation of Confucian scriptures his rethinking of the nature of language and poetry his political theory of the individual and the state and his formulation of an unorthodox spirituality Situating Pound s works in diverse cultural historical and intellectual contexts Ezra Pound and Confucianism demonstrates that despite its frequent divergence from the Confucian canon Pound s Confucian humanism gives his poetry an ideological coherence enriches the Western humanist tradition and asserts its relevance to the historical and cross cultural development of Confucianism in modern times     Translation and the Languages of Modernism

S. Yao,2016-04-30 This study examines the practice and functions of literary translation in Anglo American Modernism Rather than approaching translation as a trans historical procedure for reproducing semantic meaning between different languages Yao discusses how Modernist writers both conceived and employed translation as a complex strategy for accomplishing such feats as exploring the relationship between gender and poetry creating an authentic national culture and determining the nature of a just government all of which in turn led to developments in both poetic and novelistic form Thus translation emerges in this study as a literary practice crucial to the very development of Anglo American Modernism

Confucian Analects ,2011-10-01     Confucian Analects Confucius,1970     Readings in the Cantos Richard

Parker,2018-04-11 This volume offers clear readings of 28 Cantos from The Cantos of Ezra Pound in 23 essays written by eminent Poundians with careful explanation of sources balanced with critical analysis of Pound s project     Modernism and Non-Translation Jason Harding,John Nash,2019-10-24 This book explores the incorporation of untranslated fragments from various languages within modernist writing It studies non translation in modernist fiction poetry and other forms of writing with a principally European focus and addresses the following questions what are the aesthetic and cultural implications of non translation for modernist literature How did non translation shape the poetics and cultural politics of some of the most important writers of this key period This edited volume written by leading scholars of modernism explores American British and Irish texts alongside major French and German writers and the wider modernist recovery of Classical languages The chapters analyse non translation from the dual perspectives of both insider and outsider unsettling that false opposition and articulating in the process their individuality of expression and experience The range of voices explored indicates something of the reach and vitality of the matter of translation and specifically non translation across a selection of poetry fiction and non fictional prose while focusing on mainly canonical voices Together these essays seek to provoke and extend debate on the aesthetic cultural political and conceptual dimensions of non translation as an important yet hitherto neglected facet of modernism thus helping to re define our understanding of that movement It demonstrates the rich possibilities of reading modernism through instances of non translation

The Pound Biennial Anderson Araujo, Ron Bush, 2025-04-11 The Ezra Pound Studies Biennial claims a place as the flagship journal entirely devoted to Pound's work at a time when Pound studies represents one of the most active fields in modernist scholarship Elaborating on the life work and international reception of one of the prime movers of the modernist revolution in the arts and letters this inaugural volume joins an ever increasing number of studies examining Pound's letters prose poetry translations companions and international reception and taking the form among other things of critical essays and editions digital projects and monographs Building on this work the current volume features twelve high caliber contributions written by a diverse group of established and emerging Pound scholars Their subjects include the genesis of Pound's Pisan Cantos the poet's political and economic preoccupations his association with modernist women writers his fascination with typography and with the Italian Renaissance and his translations of Noh plays and French poetry

Jonathan Stalling,2011-10-03 The Poetics of Emptiness uncovers an important untold history by tracing the historically specific intertextual pathways of a single if polyvalent philosophical term emptiness as it is transformed within twentieth century American poetry and poetics This conceptual migration is detailed in two sections The first focuses on transpacific Buddhist poetics while the second maps the less well known terrain of transpacific Daoist poetics In Chapters 1 and 2 the author explores Ernest Fenollosa s The Chinese Written Character as a Medium for Poetry as an expression of Fenollosa s distinctly Buddhist poetics informed by a two decade long encounter with a culturally hybrid form of Buddhism known as Shin Bukkyo New Buddhism Chapter 2 explores the classical Chinese poetics that undergirds the lost half of Fenellosa s essay Chapter 3 concludes the first half of the book with an exploration of the didactic and soteriological function of emptiness in Gary Snyder s influential poetry and poetics The second half begins with a critical exploration of the three decades long career of the poet translator critic Wai lim Yip whose transpacific Daoist poetics has been an important fixture in American poetic late modernism and has begun to gain wider notoriety in China The last chapter engages the intertextual weave of poststructural thought and Daoist and shamanistic discourses in Theresa Hak Kyung Cha s important body of heterocultural productions By formulating interpretive frames as hybrid as the texts being read this book makes available one of the most important yet still largely unknown stories of American poetry and poetics     Foreign Accents Steven G.

Yao,2010-10-27 Foreign Accents sets forth a historical poetics of verse by writers of Chinese descent in the U S from the early twentieth century to the present With readings of works by Ezra Pound Li young Lee Marilyn Chin Ha Jin and John Yau this study charts the dimensions of Asian American verse as an evolving and contested counterpoetic formation     Chinese Dreams Eric R.
