Lukens, 2007 Designed to facilitate the use of children's books from all genres this exceptional resource helps teachers librarians and media specialists select the best children's literature for the classroom library or home Unlike an anthology of children's literature which includes selected chapters or text summaries the Eighth Edition of this highly regarded book teaches how to select quality children's literature. Using the critical standards for all literature, examples of children's books provide the basis for an explanation of critical principles and special issues in judging books for children. Taking readers through the definitions of literary terms such as plot, character, theme, setting, point of view, style, and tone, Lukens provides sound criteria for assessing the merit of children's books. The book also includes chapters on rhymes, poetry, biography, and informational books. A new and enlarged section addresses censorship, and a new chapter addresses the benefits of reading, its significance for children, and its growth in popularity among adults.

Children's Book Review Index Gary C. Tarbert, 1998 Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda, 1998 With a slender design and appealing art, Cullinan and Galda present a thought-provoking discussion on how children can read to respond, read to learn, and read to enjoy. This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children's books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses. Booklists direct readers to quality literature, and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria. Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text, with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues. Numerous teaching ideas, many of which are contributed by classroom teachers, provide practical applications. This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature-based curriculum.

Cullinan and Galda's Literature and the Child Lee Galda, Bernice E. Cullinan, 2002 Words and Pictures Nina Mikkelsen, 2000 This text covers the history of children's books, themes in children's books, genres, conventions of children's books, their basic elements, the creative process, and how to teach using children's books. A strong emphasis is placed on multiculturalism and practical experiences throughout.
