Galdós and Darwin T. E. Bell, 2006 Darwinian theory the big idea of the nineteenth century and its impact on the writing of Benito Pérez Galdós Despite the fact that Darwinian theory was perhaps the big idea of the nineteenth century most critics in the past have assumed that Benito Pérez Galdós would have remained unaffected by this scientific and philosophical revolution This work contends otherwise charting the influence of evolutionary theories on Galdós throughout his literary career From his adaptation of the early nineteenth century costumbristas depiction of social species into a more sophisticated portrayal of Madrid society to his treatment of shifting social forces at a time of major socio economic change Galdós's outlook is shown to be deeply enmeshed in the Darwinian debate Attention is paid not only to the hypotheses of Darwin himself but also for instance to Ernst Haeckel's evolutionary thought to Herbert Spencer's social Darwinism and to the radical histology of Santiago Ramón y Cajal Galdós and Darwin discusses how Spain's greatest novelist since Cervantes imaginatively reworked these epoch making theories and investigates the impact of science on culture as the Spanish nation approached the twentieth century T E BELL completed his Ph D under the supervision of Professor Nicholas Round at Sheffield University

The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel Harriet Turner, Adelaida López de Martínez, 2003-09-11 The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel presents the development of the modern Spanish novel from 1600 to the present Drawing on the combined legacies of Don Quijote and the traditions of the picaresque novel these essays focus on the question of invention and experiment on what constitutes the singular features of evolving fictional forms It examines how the novel articulates the relationships between history and fiction high and popular culture art and ideology and gender and society Contributors highlight the role played by historical events and cultural contexts in the elaboration of the Spanish novel which often takes a self conscious stance toward literary tradition Topics covered include the regional novel women writers and film and literature This companionable survey which includes a chronology and guide to further reading conveys a vivid sense of the innovative techniques of the Spanish novel and of the debates surrounding it Monsters by Trade Lisa Surwillo,2014-06-11 Transatlantic studies have begun to explore the lasting influence of Spain on its former colonies and the surviving ties between the American nations and Spain In Monsters by Trade Lisa Surwillo takes a different approach explaining how modern Spain was literally made by its Cuban colony Long after the transatlantic slave trade had been abolished Spain continued to smuggle thousands of Africans annually to Cuba to work the sugar plantations Nearly a third of the royal income came from Cuban sugar and these profits underwrote Spain's modernization even as they damaged its international standing Surwillo analyzes a sampling of nineteenth century Spanish literary works that reflected metropolitan fears of the hold that slave traders and the slave economy more generally had over the political cultural and financial networks of power She also examines how the nineteenth century empire and the role of the slave trader are commemorated in contemporary tourism and literature in various regions in Northern Spain This is the first book to demonstrate the centrality of not just Cuba but the illicit transatlantic slave trade to the cultural life of modern Spain The Cambridge History of Spanish Literature David T. Gies,2004 Publisher Description The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold,1993 In the writing of Benito P rez Gald s Spain s most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Gald s s methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist s art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Gald s s novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and oftening disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Gald s s work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Gald s s fiction confirms the author s own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity The Gastronomical Arts in Spain Frederick A. de Armas,James Mandrell,2022-03-01 The Gastronomical Arts in Spain includes essays that span from the medieval to the contemporary world providing a taste of the many ways in which the art of gastronomy developed in Spain over time This collection encompasses a series of cultural objects and a number of interests ranging from medicine to science from meals to banquets and from specific recipes to cookbooks The contributors consider Spanish cuisine as presented in a variety of texts including literature medical and dietary prescriptions historical documents cookbooks and periodicals They draw on literary texts in their socio historical context in order to explore concerns related to the production and consumption of food for reasons of hunger sustenance health and even gluttony Structured into three distinct courses that focus on the history of foodstuffs food etiquette and culinary fashion The Gastronomical Arts in Spain brings together the many sights and sounds of the Spanish kitchen throughout the centuries Galdos Jo Labanyi,2014-01-14 Benito Perez Galdos has been described as the greatest Spanish novelist since Cervantes His work constitutes a major contribution to the nineteenth century novel rivalling that of Dickens of Balzac and making him an essential candidate for any course on the fiction of the period Jo Labanyi s study is supported by a wide ranging introduction a section of contemporary comment headnotes to each piece and helpful appendix material Galdos and the Art of the European Novel Stephen Gilman,2014-07-14 Benito Perez Galdos 1843 1920 was one of Spain s outstanding novelists and the author of two vast cycles of novels and a number of plays In this critical study of Galdos in English Stephen Gilman relates the writer and his work to the nineteenth century novel as a genre and traces his artistic growth during a twenty year period from his initial historical fable La Fontana de Oro to his masterpiece Fortunata y Jacinta Originally published in 1981 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Unamuno's Theory of the Novel C. Longhurst,2017-07-05 Miguel de Unamuno 1864 1936 is widely regarded as Spain s greatest and most controversial writer of the first half of the twentieth century Professor of Greek and later Rector at the University of Salamanca and a figure with a noted public profile in his day he wrote a large number of philosophical political and philological essays as well as poems plays and short stories but it is his highly idiosyncratic novels for which he coined the word nivola that have attracted the greatest critical attention Niebla Mist 1914 has become one of the most studied works of Spanish literature such is the enduring fascination which it has provoked In this study C A Longhurst a distinguished Unamuno scholar sets out to show that behind Unamuno s fictional experiments there lies a coherent and quasi philosophical concept of the novelesque genre and indeed of writing itself Ideas about freedom identity finality mutuality and community are closely intertwined with ideas on writing and reading and give rise to a new and highly personal way of conceiving fiction
