Some jokes show different ways in which words are used and such jokes make it easier for learners to remember the language points. Here is an example: Is she making him a good wife? Well not exactly but she's making him a good husband. In this joke the word make is used in two different patterns In the first one make him a good wife means become a good wife for him while in the second make him a good husband means train him so that he will become a good husband A good teacher always knows when to use a joke in his classroom He may say That reminds of a joke story during his lesson and then a story follows This will arouse the students interest in his class and students never fail to like such a teacher
