

EPIC THEATRE

- Epic theatre was created by Bertolt Brecht in the mid 20th century. Brecht wanted to do something different from the everyday realistic play and thought about what it would be like to constantly remind someone that what they are watching is not real.
- In order to do this, they would have stage lamps in places where they could be seen. You might also put white, harsh, lights on stage, not depending on what the mood of the scene is.
- You might also use sharp colors and different designs. For instance, instead of making a sky blue, you might make it multiple colors in a design that doesn't look "real".

Kuhns, 1997-08-28 German Expressionist Theatre The Actor and the Stage considers the powerfully stylized anti realistic styles of acting on the German Expressionist stage from 1916 to 1921 It relates this striking departure from the dominant European acting tradition of realism to the specific cultural crises that enveloped the German nation during the course of its involvement in World War I This book describes three distinct Expressionist acting styles all of which in their own ways attempted to show how symbolic stage performance could be a powerful rhetorical resource for a culture struggling to come to terms with the crises of historical change The examination of Expressionist script and actor memoirs allows for an unprecedented focus on description and analysis of acting itself

Style: An Approach to Appreciating Theatre E. Bert Wallace, 2022-06-29 Style An Approach to Appreciating Theatre offers brief readable chapters about the basics of theatre as a starting point for discussion and provides new adaptations of classic plays that are both accessible to students learning about theatre and fit for production In this text style is the word used to describe the various ways in which theatre is done in real space and time by humans in the physical presence of other humans The book uses style the liveness of theatre that makes it distinct from literature or history as a lens to see how playwrights directors designers and actors bring scripts to life on stage Rather than focusing on theatre history or literary script analysis it emphasizes actual theatrical production through examples and explores playscripts illustrating four theatrical styles Realism Theatricalism Expressionism and Classicism Susan Glaspell's Realistic play Trifles is presented as written while The Insect Play by the Brothers apek The Hairy Ape by Eugene O'Neill and Antigone by Sophocles are original full length adaptations Style An Approach to Appreciating Theatre is the perfect resource for students of Theatre Appreciation Introduction to Theatre Theatrical Design and Stagecraft courses Epic Theatre Edward Monroe Greenberg, 1949 INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF INTEGRATIVE HUMANISM Vol. 10 No. 2 Department of Classics and Philosophy University of Cape Coast, Ghana, 2018-12-10 The Journal of Integrative Humanism is a publication of the Faculty of Arts University of Cape Coast Ghana All papers reports communications and contributions published in this journal and copyright in the same are the property of Faculty of Arts University of Cape Coast Ghana and the University of Calabar save where otherwise indicated
