Eye Of The Blackbird:

Eye of the Blackbird Holly L. Skinner, 2001 From California to the Klondike prospector Holly Skinner follows a trail of gold across the nineteenth century American West Living in a ghost town on Wyoming's South Pass she steps back into a world where gold ruled the passions of those who pursued it and changed the shape of the nation that found it In a style reminiscent of John McPhee Skinner weaves the story of her own solitudinous search for the precious metal into her accounts of the gold rushes that so dramatically accelerated the westward movement Sing with the Heart of a Bear Kenneth Lincoln, 2023-09-01 Examining contemporary poetry by way of ethnicity and gender Kenneth Lincoln tracks the Renaissance invention of the Wild Man and the recurrent Adamic myth of the lost Garden He discusses the first anthology of American Indian verse The Path on the Rainbow 1918 which opened Jorge Luis Borges university surveys of American literature to thirty five contemporary Indian poets who speak to with and against American mainstream bards From Whitman's free verse through the Greenwich Village Renaissance sandwiched between the world wars and the post apocalyptic Beat incantations to transglobal questions of tribe and verse at the century's close Lincoln shows where we mine the mother lode of New World voices what distinguishes American verse which tales our poets sing and what inflections we hear in the rhythms pitches and parsings of native lines Lincoln presents the Lakota concept of singing with the heart of a bear as poetry which moves through an artist He argues for a fusion of estranged cultures tribal and migr margin and mainstream in detailing the ethnopoeitics of Native American translation and the growing modernist concern for a native sense of the makings of American verse This fascinating work represents a major new effort in understanding American and Native American literature spirituality and culture Examining contemporary poetry by way of ethnicity and gender Kenneth Lincoln tracks the Renaissance invention of the Wild Man and the recurrent Adamic myth of the lost Garden He discusses the first anthology of American Indian verse The Path on the Eye of the Blackbird Mary Ann McFadden, 1997 Winner of the 1996 Four Way Books Intro Prize in Poetry selected by Chase Twichell Like the voice in Whitman which she exuberantly appropriates and updates McFadden's speaker is at once uniquely human and recognizable in all of us a genuinely ambitious book a book with big wings Chase Twichell Writing Works Gillie Bolton, Victoria Field, Kate Thompson, 2006 Writing Works is a guide for writers or therapists working with groups or individuals and is full of practical advice on everything from the equipment needed to run a session to ideas for themes all backed up by the theory that underpins the methods explained Practitioners contribute detailed accounts of organizing writing workshops for clients Writing Works Victoria Field, Gillie Bolton, Kate Thompson, 2006-08-15 Writing Works is a guide for writers or therapists working with groups or individuals and is full of practical advice on everything from the equipment needed to run a session to ideas for themes all backed up by the theory that underpins the methods explained Practitioners contribute detailed accounts of organizing writing workshops for clients Modernism David Ayers, 2008-04-15 This short introduction to Modernism analyses the movement from the perspective of English and American literature Provides a critical overview of some of the central texts of literary Modernism Covers both established works and those that have only recently come to critical attention Includes detailed discussion of major authors including T S Eliot Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Wallace Stevens and H D Myth, Language and Tradition Wit Píetrzak,2011-05-25 How can poetry embrace morality through focusing on metaphrasts What is the relation between an allumette and the alpha rhythm How come that money has turned into a metonym of goodness And above all is it still possible to think of the human subject as a viable category in late modernity These are some of the questions that J H Prynne s poetry deals with Levity of Design voices a critique of the present day society very much from within and demonstrates how Prynne has contrived to single handedly overcome the impasse created by the legacy of poststructuralism In a milieu of avant garde linguistic experiment developed from modernist techniques of Pound and Olson but also the early Eliot as well as Velimir Khlebnikov and against the background of the writings of Heidegger and Adorno these poems are demonstrated to seek a language in which the notion of man can be restituted Literature and Animal Studies Mario

Ortiz-Robles,2016-06-17 Why do animals talk in literature In this provocative book Mario Ortiz Robles tracks the presence of animals across an expansive literary archive to argue that literature cannot be understood as a human endeavor apart from its capacity to represent animals Focusing on the literary representation of familiar animals including horses dogs cats and songbirds Ortiz Robles examines the various tropes literature has historically employed to give meaning to our fraught relations with other animals Beyond allowing us to imagine the lives of non humans literature can make a lasting contribution to Animal Studies an emerging discipline within the humanities by showing us that there is something fictional about our relation to animals Literature and Animal Studies combines a broad mapping of literary animals with detailed readings of key animal texts to offer a new way of organizing literary history that emphasizes genera over genres and a new way of classifying animals that is premised on tropes rather than taxa The book makes us see animals and our relation to them with fresh eyes and in doing so prompts us to review the role of literature in a culture that considers it an endangered art form
