The Evil Eye in the Bible and in Rabbinic Literature Rivka Ulmer,1994 Jewish belief in the power of the evil eye aroused and energized by emotions such as jealousy and mean spiritedness has been a common concern in Jewish life from earliest times The everpresent fear of its malevolent power is expressed by the common Yiddish expression kein ahoro which means literally without an evil eye Kein ahoro is intended to ward off any potential evil eye when one speaks of one s favorable prospects Sephardic Jews have been concerned with it as well and like the Ashkenazim their Jewish ritual life has incorporated ways of protecting against it Dr Ulmer s book examines this idea in its many permutations in Rabbinic literature In particular she examines its origin in people s negative emotions and its effects on its victims in many phases of life in causing death and sickness for example or its role in sexual transgression etc The Angel of Death is depicted as having many eyes and early Jewish mystical literature depicts angels in general as covered with eyes On the other hand the good eye has many positive meanings and these are discussed as well Dr Ulmer s study provides the reader with a complete view of the numerous symbolic meanings which this most important sense organ has been given in Jewish culture Book Jacket Peg Woffington, Christie Johnstone, etc., and a Simpleton Charles Reade,2024-06-07 Reprint of the original first published which concentrates on the new blends that become possible after the integration or the blending of source and target domain elements the other is the approach in terms of primary scenes and subscenes which often determine the way source and target domains interact
