Few American religious figures have stirred more passion among adherents and antagonists than Joseph Smith Born in 1805 and silenced thirty nine years later by assassins bullets he dictated more than one hundred revelations published books of new scripture built a temple organized several new cities and became the proclaimed prophet to tens of thousands during his abbreviated life Among his many novel teachings and practices none is more controversial than plural marriage a restoration of the Old Testament practice that he accepted as part of his divinely appointed mission Joseph Smith taught his polygamy doctrines only in secret and dictated a revelation in July 1843 authorizing its practice now LDS D C 132 that was never published during his lifetime Although rumors and exposés multiplied it was not until 1852 that Mormons in Brigham Young's Utah took a public stand By then thousands of Mormons were engaged in the practice that was seen as essential to salvation Victorian America saw plural marriage as immoral and Joseph Smith as acting on libido However the private writings of Nauvoo participants and other polygamy insiders tell another more complex and nuanced story Many of these accounts have never been published Others have been printed sporadically in unrelated publications Drawing on every known historical account whether by supporters or opponents Volumes 1 and 2 take a fresh look at the chronology and development of Mormon polygamy including the difficult conundrums of the Fannie Alger relationship polyandry the angel with a sword accounts Emma Smith's poignant response and the possibility of Joseph Smith's offspring by his plural wives Among the most intriguing are the newly available Andrew Jenson papers containing not only the often quoted statements by surviving plural wives but also Jenson's own private research conducted in the late nineteenth century Telling the story of Joseph Smith's polygamy from the records of those who knew him best augmented by those who observed him from a distance may have produced the most useful view of all

The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 2, Genocide in the Indigenous, Early Modern and Imperial Worlds, from c.1535 to World War One Ned Blackhawk, Ben Kiernan, Benjamin Madley, Rebe Taylor, 2023-05-04 Volume II documents and analyses genocide and extermination throughout the early modern and modern eras. It tracks their global expansion as European and Asian imperialisms and Euroamerican settler colonialism spread across the globe before the Great War forging new frontiers and impacting Indigenous communities in Europe, Asia, North America, Africa, and Australia. Twenty-five historians with expertise on specific regions explore examples on five continents, providing comparisons of nine cases of conventional imperialism with nineteen of settler colonialism and offering a substantial basis for assessing the various factors leading to genocide. This volume also considers cases where genocide did not occur, permitting a global consideration of the role of imperialism and settler-Indigenous relations from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries. It ends with six pre-1918 cases from Australia, China, the Middle East, Africa, and Europe that can be seen as premonitions of the major twentieth-century genocides in Europe and Asia.

A History of Preaching Volume 1 O.C. Edwards, Jr., 2010-09-01. A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation. Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser-known figures, Edwards paints a detailed, compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel. Pastors, scholars, and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching. Volume 1, appearing in the print edition, contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative. Along the way, the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Bernard, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Edwards, Rauschenbusch, Barth—all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention. Yet lesser-known figures and developments also appear: from the ninth-century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching; to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands, preachers of the eighteenth century; Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew. Volume 2, contained on the enclosed CD-ROM, contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection, placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair-minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop, deliver, and listen to a sermon, A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs, who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-

moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches
