DK Eyewitness Books: Media and Communication Clive Gifford, 2010-01-29 From the earliest times people have been driven by a desire to communicate share experiences and entertain Beginning with simple smoke signals and ending with the latest telepathic implants media charts the fascinating story of how information is passed on This book tells how the first alphabets led to the birth of the written word and eventually to printed books In this century television has given us a window on the world and newspapers have kept us up to date with today s events Now the digital revolution sends our messages across the world in a matter of minutes and the Internet provides instant access to vast amounts of information All these media transmit information so fast that the world is becoming a global village Written by Cliff Gifford science writer and author of many children s books this is a unique and exciting history of the world s media Eyewitness Textures Michael

Lithgow, Michèle Martin, 2024-01-15 News coverage today is an emerging collaboration between the general public and professional journalists News consumers have come to expect and demand the unprecedented immediacy of experience and coverage of breaking news offered by photographs video clips audio recordings tweets commentary content created by ordinary citizens The use of user generated content is a salient aspect of how journalists and news organizations are responding to technological changes in the twenty first century Eyewitness Textures examines the far reaching changes in journalism spurred by the growing importance of user generated content Bringing together the voices and experiences of professional journalists and academic researchers from across five continents this collection explores news production practices changing skills among editors and journalists and corporate and newsroom restructuring Chapters by practitioners collectively reflect the newsroom experiences of major global media organizations while the academic contributions address issues of industrial transformation political influence truth and verification aesthetics and ideological implications Both perspectives combine to deepen our understanding of what constitutes the conditions and creation of good journalism as well as the implications of how the profession should be taught to future journalists Tracing recent shifts in journalism practice around the world Eyewitness Textures examines the creative adaptation and strategies of journalists and news organizations in the face of transformative technological change Journalism and Eyewitness Images Mette Mortensen, 2014-12-17

Building on the vast research conducted on war and media since the 1970s scholars are now studying the digital transformation of the production of news Little scholarly attention has been paid however to non professional eyewitness visuals even though this genre holds a still greater bearing on the way conflicts are fought communicated and covered by the news media This volume examines the power of new technologies for creating and disseminating images in relation to conflicts Mortensen presents a theoretical framework and uses case studies to investigate the impact of non professional images with regard to essential issues in today s media landscape including new media technologies and democratic change the political mobilization and censorship of images the ethics of spectatorship and the shifting role of the mainstream news
