Zempel, 1994 American First Editions Merle De Vore Johnson, 1929 The Textual Condition Jerome J. McGann, 2020-09-01 Over the past decade literary critic and editor Jerome McGann has developed a theory of textuality based in writing and production rather than in reading and interpretation These new essays extend his investigations of the instability of the physical text McGann shows how every text enters the world under socio historical conditions that set the stage for a ceaseless process of textual development and mutation Arguing that textuality is a matter of inscription and articulation he explores texts as material and social phenomena as particular kinds of acts McGann links his study to contextual and institutional studies of literary works as they are generated over time by authors editors typographers book designers marketing planners and other publishing agents This enables him to examine issues of textual stability and instability in the arenas of textual production and reproduction Drawing on literary examples from the past two centuries including works by Byron Blake Morris Yeats Joyce and especially Pound McGann applies his theory to key problems facing anyone who studies texts and textuality

Infrathin Marjorie Perloff, 2021-09-03 Esteemed literary critic Marjorie Perloff reconsiders the nature of the poetic examining its visual grammatical and sound components The infrathin was Marcel Duchamp's playful name for the most minute shade of difference that between the report of a gunshot and the appearance of the bullet hole or between two objects in a series made from the same mold Eat is not the same thing as ate The poetic Marjorie Perloff suggests can best be understood as the language of infrathin For in poetry whether in verse or prose words and phrases that are seemingly unrelated in ordinary discourse are realigned by means of sound visual layout etymology grammar and construction so as to make it new In her revisionist micropoetics Perloff draws primarily on major modernist poets from Stein and Yeats to Beckett suggesting that the usual emphasis on what this or that poem is about does not do justice to its infrathin possibilities From Goethe's eight line Wanderer's Night Song to Eliot's Four Quartets to the minimalist lyric of Rae Armantrout Infrathin is designed to challenge our current habits of reading and to answer the central question what is it that makes poetry poetry
