Faber Of Modern Verse:

The Faber Book of Modern Verse Michael Roberts, 2009 First published in February 1936 just under a year from when the idea for it was first discussed this is one of the most important and influential anthologies of the twentieth century Since then three further editions by in succession Anne Ridler Donald Hall and Peter Porter have been published All took as their kernel the original selection by Michael Roberts This Faber Finds reissue restores that pristine selection More likely than not the original idea was T S Eliot s the choice of editor was undoubtedly his and it was an inspired one Michael Roberts was a poet himself and a good one but more important for this task was his acute awareness of the poetry scene and his sense of the modern movement within it Yes his purpose was tendentious He excludes some poets he admires such as Edmund Blunden and Walter de la Mare because they seem to me to have written good poems without having been compelled to make any notable development of poetic technique On the other hand I have included only poems which seem to me to add to the resources of poetry to be likely to influence the future development of poetry and language From the very start and could there be a more arresting one with Gerard Manley Hopkins The Wreck of the Deutschland Michael Roberts powerfully and consistently fulfils that aim Philip Hobsbaum in The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Poetry says of The Faber Book of Modern Verse it also encapsulates as no other literary document quite does the innovative quality of the 1930s
