Jones,2016-04-15 Mexican drug networks are large and violent engaging in activities like the trafficking of narcotics money laundering extortion kidnapping and mass murder Despite the impact of these activities in

Mexico and abroad these illicit networks are remarkably resilient to state intervention Drawing on extensive fieldwork and interviews with US and Mexican law enforcement government officials organized crime victims and criminals Nathan P Jones examines the comparative resilience of two basic types of drug networks territorial and transactional that are differentiated by their business strategies and provoke wildly different responses from the state Transactional networks focus on trafficking and are more likely to collude with the state through corruption while territorial networks that seek to control territory for the purpose of taxation extortion and their own security often trigger a strong backlash from the state Timely and authoritative Mexico's Illicit Drug Networks and the State Reaction provides crucial insight into why Mexico targets some drug networks over others reassesses the impact of the war on drugs and proposes new solutions for weak states in their battles with drug networks

House Education and Labor,1969 Research in Education ,1974 Globalization on the Margins (2nd Edition) Iveta Silova,Sarfaro Niyozov,2020-01-01 Reflecting on almost three decades of postsocialist transformations the second edition of Globalization on the Margins explores continuities and changes in Central Asian education development since the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991 with a particular focus on the developments that took place since the production of the first edition in 2011 Rather than viewing these transformations in isolation the authors place their analyses within the global context by reflecting on the interaction between Soviet legacies and global education reform pressures in the Central Asian countries of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan This new edition in addition to a revised introduction and a newly added conclusion consists of four thematic sections each reflecting a key theme in the educational life of the Central Asian states These thematic sections introduction and conclusion collectively update our understanding of the recent developments and challenges in education of the five Central Asian states They however go beyond mere information update so as to complicate re engage re form and re define the margins taking up margins a conceptual geographic cultural and geo political construct Notwithstanding the diversity of local and international authors variety of theoretical perspectives methodological approaches and conceptual lenses the essays reveal the complexity and uncertainty of the post socialist education transformations Instead of portraying the transition process as the influx of Western ideas into the region Globalization on the Margins provides new lenses to critically examine education as a contested field of diverse perspectives competing forces and multidirectional flow of ideas concepts and reforms in Central Asia

ENDORSEMENTS Hindsight famously brings clarity And much of what happened after the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the Soviet Union has now been correctly handed over to historians Nonetheless we ignore that history at our peril The contributors to this volume show that carefully textured and historically attuned education research generates deep insights into ongoing transformations and the political cultural social and economic structures relations and practices that do the work of producing margins and centers in the first place Noah W Sobe Loyola University Chicago Globalization on the margins and at the epicentre of the battles of the Great Powers Two excellent educators Sarfarozi Niyozov and Iveta Silova compiled a timely and long awaited scholarly work based on empirical research in societies which had similar history close to three decades ago All the contributors are prolific educators who know the education system from within and without who either hailed from the region or have spent a considerable amount of time to know the systems well The book contains remarkable stories of education through the ups and downs of historical evolution It is a must read primer for anyone interested in learning about high quality research in the field of education in Central Asia It is a huge contribution to educational research with an impact on research and teaching for years to come Duishon Shamatov Nazarbayev University Kazakhstan The challenge of moving Central Asia from the borders of the Soviet Empire to the world s center is the focus of the discussions in Globalization on the Margins The transition to the Western models of education was happening in the context of major paradigm shift which entire humanity was experiencing and which could be described as the arrival of the new post industrial civilization During this process Central Asian countries have been pushed to the margins because their contribution to the wealth of the new world know how was much less pronounced than that of their Western neighbours Therefore investment into the research that contributes to local knowledge production seems a natural solution to the problem All the contributors to this book have a vast experience in the region and many of their observations are thought provoking This is a very insightful and much needed book Elena Lenskaya Moscow School of Social and Economic Sciences Russia

Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E. Wessells, 1922 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Teacher Education in Lifelong Learning Alison Iredale, 2018-01-13 This book promotes the idea that professionalism among teachers should be marked by democratic relations rather than by managerialism and performance management It provides a thorough investigation of issues around the participation of trainee teachers in the Lifelong Learning Sector by reflecting on their experiences and questioning how well initial teacher education prepares teachers as professional practitioners in the sector The reflexive nature of the book promotes a deep discussion of the nature of professionalism drawing upon the works of John Dewey Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu and places initial teacher education in the Lifelong Learning Sector firmly within the policy and ideological context of regulation audit and control It also illuminates pertinent discussions around teacher agency through a consideration of confidence excellence and routinised practices Finally the book takes us through the looking glass to reveal the tensions within the teacher education curriculum as it prepares trainee teachers for a ready made world whilst at the same time attempting to encourage principles of social justice inclusive practice and education as a democratic endeavour It will be compelling reading for students and researchers working in Education and Sociology particularly those with an interest in lifelong learning and teacher training India Today Stuart Corbridge, John

Harriss, Craig Jeffrey, 2013-04-03 Twenty years ago India was still generally thought of as an archetypal developing country home to the largest number of poor people of any country in the world and beset by problems of low economic growth casteism and violent religious conflict Now India is being feted as an economic power house which might well become the second largest economy in the world before the middle of this century Its democratic traditions moreover remain broadly intact How and why has this historic transformation come about And what are its implications for the people of India for Indian society and politics These are the big questions addressed in this book by three scholars who have lived and researched in different parts of India during the period of this great transformation Each of the 13 chapters seeks to answer a particular question When and why did India take off How did a weak state promote audacious reform Is government in India becoming more responsive and to whom Does India have a civil society Does caste still matter Why is India threatened by a Maoist insurgency In addressing these and other pressing questions the authors take full account of vibrant new scholarship that has emerged over the past decade or so both from Indian writers and India specialists and from social scientists who have studied India in a comparative context India Today is a comprehensive and compelling text for students of South Asia political economy development and comparative politics as well as anyone interested in the future of the world's largest democracy

Emerging Trends in Education Policy Theodore S. Ransaw, Brian Boggs, 2023-06-01 From the moment society first conceived an education system there has been a need to have critical discussions about how best to provide education and how best to create education policy Because of the rapidly changing and fluid nature of technology education has become the most crucial component to having a better life around the globe The purpose of Emerging Trends in Education Policy Unapologetic Progressive Conversations is to highlight impactful policies strategies initiatives and approaches to educational reform globally nationally as well as locally through an edited volume Emerging Trends in Education Policy offers readers the opportunity to read contributions from researchers and policymakers who like to make a ruckus and speak to an audience that appreciates disruption Emerging Trends in Education Policy provides space for researchers to take intellectual risks and policymakers to be on the cutting edge of educational policy change Educators often do not have the time to research and propose policy recommendations despite the fact they are the people that deliver the content Professors often delay their more provocative findings and suggestions until after full tenure By encouraging chapters from professors that were K 12 teachers at one time first and researchers second Emerging Trends in Education Policy Unapologetic Progressive Conversation fulfills the need for innovative policy reform based on recommendations from practitioners with direct knowledge in the field Teaching Methods in Science Subjects Promoting Sustainability Eila Jeronen, 2018-04-03 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Teaching Methods in Science Subjects Promoting Sustainability that was published in Education Sciences

Character Education for 21st Century Global Citizens Endah Retnowati, Anik Ghufon, Marzuki, Kasiyan, Adi Pierawan, Ashadi, 2018-09-25 Character Education for 21st Century Global Citizens contains the papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Teacher Education and Professional Development InCoTEPD 2017 Yogyakarta Indonesia 20 21 October 2017 The book covers 7 topics 1 Values for 21st century global citizens 2 Preparing teachers for integrative values education 3 Teacher professional development for enhanced character education 4 Curriculum syllabus lesson plan learning materials development for integrated values education 5 Developing learning activities tasks strategies for character education 6 Assessing student s character development values acquisition assessment 7 Creating managing conducive school culture to character education Advancing inclusive education for students with special educational needs: Rethinking policy and practice Stephen Hay, Wendi Beamish, Dianne Chambers, 2025-05-13 This year marks the 30th anniversary of the Salamanca Declaration UNESCO 1994 which began the global movement towards inclusive education for students with special educational needs SEN Inclusive education for this student group represents a paradigm shift in providing quality education for all students Around the globe this universal ideal has progressed a strengths based approach to student learning and encouraged mixed ability classrooms Notwithstanding this milestone recent studies have highlighted persistent disparities in the formulation and implementation of inclusion policies inadequacies in teacher preparation and imbalances in access to resources Factors such as these continue to pose challenges in achieving truly inclusive education for students with SEN Given this context it is both timely and essential to undertake a critical reassessment of the inclusive education agenda for this student group While policy frameworks may emphasize inclusion their real world translation often falls short leading to gaps between intention and realization Moreover the limited enactment of evidence based practices at school and classroom levels continue to impede student engagement and learning Furthermore there is a need to consider how inclusive education interfaces with the broader concepts of diversity equity and individualized learning The goal of this Research Topic is to explore these complex issues identify underlying barriers and promote strategies that can genuinely move inclusive education forward for students with SEN

Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology

J. Michael Spector, M. David Merrill, Jan Elen, M. J. Bishop, 2013-07-03

The 4th edition of the Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology expands upon the previous 3 versions providing a comprehensive update on research pertaining to new and emerging educational technologies. Chapters that are no longer pertinent have been eliminated in this edition with most chapters being completely rewritten, expanded, and updated. Additionally, new chapters pertaining to research methodologies in educational technology have been added due to expressed reader interest. Each chapter now contains an extensive literature review documenting and explaining the most recent outstanding research, including major findings and methodologies employed. The Handbook authors continue to be international leaders in their respective fields; the list is cross-disciplinary by design, and great effort was taken to invite authors outside of the traditional instructional design and technology community.
