New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., Eye HEar the Visual in Music Simon Shaw-Miller,2013 Eye hEar The Visual in Music employs the concept of the visual in proximate relation to music producing a tension is it not the case that there is a gulf between painting and music between the visible and the audible One is full of colour and light yet silent one is invisible and marvellously noisy Such a belief this book argues betrays an ideological constraint on music desiccating it to sound and art to vision The starting point of this study is more hybrid and hydrating that music is never employed without numerous and complex intersections with the visual By involving the concept of synaesthesia the book evokes music's multi sensory nature stops it from sounding alone and offers music as a subject for art historians Music bleeds into art and visuality in its graphic depiction in notation in the theatre of performance its sights and sites This book looks at music in its absolute guise as a model for art at notation and the conductor as the silent visual fulcrum around which music circulates at the music and image of Erik Satie at the concert hall as white cube at the symphonic film 2001 A Space Odyssey and at the liminality of John Cage and Andy Warhol The Western Lancet ,1855 The Novel and The Police D. A. Miller,1988 With the appearance of D A Miller's remarkable book the Victorian novel has its most dazzling critic in years Miller's subject is not so much the police in fiction as fiction and policing narrative as a conservative function of the polis Tracking diverse strategies of surveillance and incarceration into the confines of the fictional institution itself Miller investigates Victorian novels as the often unconscious agent of a disciplinary culture He thus reads fiction reading us keeping a public in its private place His mastery of an intricate layered and sinuous argument is stunning the writing no less than superb For all the book s overarching debt to Foucault D A Miller do the police in a voice all his own Garrett Stewart author of Death Sentences Styles of Dying in British Fiction     The Novel Map Patrick M. Bray,2013-01-31 Focusing on Stendhal G rard de Nerval George Sand mile Zola and Marcel Proust The Novel Map Mapping the Self in Nineteenth Century French Fiction explores the ways that these writers represent and negotiate the relationship between the self and the world as a function of space in a novel turned map With the rise of the novel and of autobiography the literary and cultural contexts of nineteenth century France reconfigured both the ways literature could represent subjects and the ways subjects related to space In the first person works of these authors maps situate the narrator within the imaginary space of the novel Yet the time inherent in the text s narrative unsettles the spatial self drawn by the maps and so creates a novel self one which is both new and literary The novel self transcends the rigid confines of a map In this significant study Patrick M Bray charts a new direction in critical theory     A Treatise on the Motor Apparatus of the Eyes George Thomas Stevens,1906     The Other Worlds of Hector Berlioz Inge van Rij,2015-02-19 Berlioz frequently explored other worlds in his writings from the imagined exotic enchantments of New Zealand to the rings of Saturn where Beethoven s spirit was said to reside The settings for his musical works are more conservative and his adventurousness has instead been located in his mastery of the orchestra as both orchestrator and conductor Inge van Rij s book takes a new approach to Berlioz s treatment of the orchestra by exploring the relationship between these two forms of control the orchestra as abstract sound and the orchestra as collective labour and instrumental technology Van Rij reveals that the negotiation between worlds characteristic of Berlioz s writings also plays out in his music orchestral technology may be concealed or ostentatiously displayed musical instruments might be industrialised or exoticised and the orchestral musicians themselves move between being a society of distinctive individuals and being a machine played by Berlioz himself     Illusion and Reality John Raymond Dugan,2014-10-08 No detailed description available for Illusion and Reality     Visualizing Theory Lucien Taylor,2014-02-04 Visualizing Theory is a lavishly illustrated collection of provocative essays occasional pieces and dialogues that first appeared in Visual Anthropology Review between 1990 and 1994 It contains contributions from anthropologists from cultural literary and film critics and from image makers themselves Reclaiming visual anthropology as a space for the critical representation of visual culture from the naive realist and exoticist inclinations that have beleaguered practitioners efforts to date Visualizing Theory is a major intervention into this growing field     The Oxford Handbook of Film Theory Kyle Stevens,2022 Poses timely questions about the state of cinema today Looks beyond canonical film theory and practitioners Revitalizes an essential part of the discipline s identity Offers provocative new arguments from leading film scholars Book jacket     The American Encyclopedia and Dictionary of Ophthalmology Casey Albert Wood,1916     Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office, United States Army (Army Medical Library) Army Medical Library (U.S.),1945     Across an Inland Sea Nicholas

Howe, 2021-03-09 How do the places we live in and visit shape our lives and memories What does it mean to reside in different locations across the span of a life In richly textured portraits of places seen from within Nicholas Howe contemplates how places create and gather their stories and how in turn a sense of place locates the stories of our own lives Howe begins with one of the finest descriptions ever written of Buffalo that city on an inland sea where he grew up He gives us a fresh Paris viewed from the river below And he depicts Oklahoma as a site of open lands and dislocation a place of coming and going Howe then turns to Chartres a traditional location of pilgrimage to ask what other sites might still be capable of compelling visitors in secular time He portrays Berlin as a scene of twentieth century history and a city that helped him make sense of his American life Finally he writes about Columbus Ohio as home Vividly rendering the places he has known Howe meditates on the weight of home the temptations of the metropolis the fact of dislocation the unraveling of history the desire to remake ourselves through voyage and the wonder of the familiar In ways that too often elude travel writers it is place that holds our imagination that inspires much of our art and literature Across an Inland Sea evokes the various senses of place that can fill and haunt a life and ultimately give life its form and meaning
