McDonald, Gian Tellini, 2004-07-09 An ecumenical introduction to the study of Christian worship which emphasises the complementarity of Word and Sacrament and the unity of theology and practice and considers the place of worship in the modern age It is especially designed for those of various traditions who are preparing for the ministry or who participate regularly in worship and wish to deepen their understanding Journeying Life with God/encountering God's Love 2 Tm' 2002 Ed. , Preparing to Encounter God Theodore Andoseh, 1900 This compilation offers a unique perspective on encounters with God both on an individual and collective level as exemplified by the lives of Abraham Isaac Jacob and the people of Israel By delving into their personal journeys we uncover the distinct facets of God's identity as Father Son and Holy Spirit We explore direct and indirect forms of collective encounters by studying God's interactions with Israel Our quest to understand what it means to experience God's tangible presence led us to Scripture We wanted to know if such profound encounters were documented how individuals and communities prepared to meet and experience God and what ensued thereafter This daily journey unfolds during the 11th session of our annual 40 day Praise Prayer and Fasting Crusade It captures the essence of our fervent prayers for a tangible encounter with the Almighty during the Third World Convention of Christian Missionary Fellowship International As you immerse yourself in this life changing moment may the Lord abundantly bless your experience leading you to relive a profound encounter with the Lord Walled about with God Jean Prou, 2005 Christians are called to proclaim the glorious liberty of the children of God to all men and women in the world With this in mind the enclosure of cloistered nuns the apparent renunciation of personal freedom in order to live within the walls of a monastery for the rest of one's life is often regarded as a sign of contradiction How can such a life be justified in view of the Gospel which invites Christians to become a light to the world and to proclaim the good news to all peoples This unique book written by cloistered nuns themselves provides answers to this and many other questions Far from being an invention of the Middle Ages which was imposed on women by a male dominated Church and society enclosure was in fact freely chosen by nuns themselves from the very beginning and only later became an object of canonical legislation Drawing on the riches of Christian traditions this book examines enclosure from a biblical historical spiritual and theological perspective showing how it aids the prayer life and mission of cloistered nuns Dom Jean Prou 1911 1999 was fifth Abbot of the Abbey of Saint Pierre de Solesmes and Abbot President of the Solesmes Congregation from 1959 until his retirement in 1992 His high esteem for the vocation of enclosed nuns led to an invitation to oversee the international team of cloistered Benedictine nuns from France Canada and England who cooperated to write this book Encountering God Andrew Purves, Charles Partee, 2000-01-01 Purves and Partee discuss theology's relevance to personal life and Christian faith from an evangelical perspective and through the lens of the Reformed tradition Encountering God focuses on basic issues of Christian faith as they are filtered through contemporary experience the merits of doctrine God Jesus faith justification sanctification

Cross, 2019-10-15 In an age when the church is sometimes viewed as irrelevant and inauthentic leading Pentecostal theologian Terry Cross calls the people of God to a radical change of structure and mission based on theological principles Cross whose work is respected by scholars from across the ecumenical landscape offers an introduction to ecclesiology that demonstrates how Pentecostals can contribute to and learn from the church catholic A forthcoming volume by the author Serving the People of God's Presence will focus on the role of leadership in the church Dramatic Encounters in the Bible M. E. Andrew, 2013-07-31 This book began when the author realised that when people said they were fascinated by particular biblical passages they were usually ones that presented dramatic encounters between people and between God and people Such are the passages interpreted in this book They usually set a vivid scene that heightens the dramatic nature of the encounter and animated dialogue often directly addresses the reader There is also animated action that is vividly striking and often sudden and unexpected These features involve the readers themselves and may question them about what they expect Indeed the dramatic encounters provocatively lead to unexpected new life in the future Our God Loves Justice W. Travis McMaken, 2017-11-01 Helmut Gollwitzer was a direct heir of the theological legacy of the great Protestant theologian Karl Barth More than any of Barth's other interpreters Gollwitzer embraced and extended the sociopolitical impulses and implications within Barth's theology In this Gollwitzer embodies a salient and necessary alternative in the American context of increasingly intertwined theological and political discourses This volume the first book length study of Gollwitzer available in English provides a helpful introduction to the life theology and political thought of this crucial theologian and public intellectual No Regrets Robin Bertram, 2017 If you were to die today have you really lived After facing the possibility of death Robin Bertram took inventory of her life and realized she was given a second chance a chance to choose joy and to live life with no regrets In No Regrets Robin provides you with insight encouragement and guidance to live a life that is impactful to love deeply to live passionately and to leave a legacy You will be encouraged to Live

Kim,2022-10-21 Contemporary theologies of mission rely on the central concept of the missio Dei which states that mission properly belongs to the triune God over the church However present accounts fail to establish any corresponding link between God s trinitarian economy and ontology In other words the problem of the missio Dei is the problem of the break between the act and being of God Benjamin H Kim argues that a repair is needed for missio Dei theology and this repair is found in reexamining Barth s doctrine of revelation In doing so the locus of mission moves from God s trinitarian sending to his trinitarian revealing The repair is further advanced by Dietrich Bonhoeffer through his concept of person which functions as the unity of act and being This account returns mission to its original definition which was intended to describe the inner trinitarian being of God in relation to humanity The concept of person recovers this meaning of mission by locating it first in the person of Christ and second in the collective person of the church existing as the Christ community Thus Bonhoeffer s description of revelation in terms of personhood provides an account that is more faithful to the missio Dei s core insights
