Hinlicky,2010-05-17 Is Christian belief tenable today Is it possible to be a creedal Christian With the help of Martin Luther Paul Hinlicky here explores classical Christian beliefs regarding the person and work of Christ and human nature and destiny He also counters contemporary objections to creedal faith from the so called new perspective on Paul to Pope Benedict s rejection of the Augsburg Confession to the continuing challenge of Marx Luther and the Beloved Community does not present Luther s medieval thought as a possibility for today but does make him available for the future as a teacher of the faith and a help for tackling contemporary questions of Christian belief According to Hinlicky Luther is misused and misunderstood by those of his own tradition and needs to be understood not as hero of the faith but rather as the proponent of a beloved community that does not yet fully exist In performing this makeover Hinlicky reveals genuine new insights concealed within Luther s rhetoric The Rise and Fall of Self William Landon,2006 It is beyond debate that the world is troubled with numerous problems We live in a time of political economic and social uncertainty While all of us earnestly hope that these problems will be worked out we all differ widely in our views of the best route to get to these solutions Perhaps the most basic issue in seeking solutions to our problems is the identification of the cause or source of these problems As the world is an interconnected system where we all have some impact on the whole it is logical to assume that the most basic issues of the world s problems lie within each of us individually This book takes this approach If we are to ever hope to move toward solutions to the world situation we must begin with each of our own individual situations This is not a look at our physical situation but with our psychological and spiritual situation The only way we can ever hope to build a better world is to build better people The making of better people begins with a proper constitution of our self or the person we truly are In the end there are only two versions of our self that we can elect to live in the independent self or the individual self One of these versions leads to a life of bondage and the other leads to a healthy life of positive impact This impact touches both our own life and the condition of all those we have contact with What Does the Bible Say About...
