

The background of the image shows three people in silhouette climbing a dark, rocky mountain peak. They are positioned in a line, with the person at the top reaching down to assist the person below. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the sky, partially obscured by the mountain and the figures, creating a strong backlight effect. The sky is filled with soft, horizontal clouds. The overall mood is one of struggle, perseverance, and divine assistance.

God Help Us:

So Help Us, God Carl J. Richard, 2025-04-15 The religious beliefs of America's leaders and the role of religion in public life have long captivated the American public. In this book, historian Carl J. Richard looks at the many ways that the Bible has influenced America's leaders in their personal and political lives. With chapters organized thematically, Richard discusses the educational system, familial influences, church experiences, and religious revivals that have immersed presidents in the Bible, their lifelong engagement with Scripture, their biblically infused political rhetoric, their powerful belief in a divine Providence that protected them and guided their nation, their resultant belief in the power of prayer, their belief in God-given rights and spiritual equality, their belief in a national mission to advance the cause of liberty across the globe, their belief in the excellence of Christian ethics, and in the necessity of religion to the survival and success of republican government, their belief in an afterlife, their religious differences, the influence of the founding presidents' biblical conception of human nature on their establishment of constitutional checks and balances, and the effect of modern presidents' more optimistic outlook on their willingness to undermine them. So Help Us, God: American Presidents and the Bible will appeal to all readers interested in American presidential history and the role of religion in public life. Help Yourself to God's Help Travis

Monday, 2007-01-17 A creative yet concise Christian response to self-help literature and philosophy. Written especially for people interested in accessing God's help for themselves and others. God's Help When You Suffer John Ankerberg, Michael Easley, Joni Eareckson Tada, 2014-03-25 Whether natural disasters, disease, or struggles in our personal lives, we wonder why God allows suffering and how we are to handle it. As Christians, we know we are not immune to these problems. Many of us struggle with chronic pain or disease. Others face challenges in other ways, ranging from emotions to finances to relationships. The good news is that God is there when we struggle with each of life's challenges, no exceptions. He is not only there; He is also working in our times of struggle. Romans 8:28 promises, "We know that for those who love God, all things work together for good for those who are called according to His purpose." God's Help Wanted Ad Rolena, 2009-04 Have you ever wondered about the number one thing God wants from His children? We live in a world where it is easy to become self-centered in many ways, and some of these ways trickle into the church. With so much going on in our lives, we seek to find help in God as we should. But have you ever stopped to ask God what you can assist Him with? We know God is almighty. So He doesn't necessarily need our help, but the truth is He wants us to take part in our relationship with Him. God is in love with us, and the way we show our love for Him is by obeying His word as disciples. This obedience includes responding to His Help Wanted Ad and being available as Soul-givers for the Lost. The Great Commission of Christ, Matthew 28:18-20, says, "And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Amen.'" RoLena Rosa Elena Figueroa
