Gods Lovers In An Age Of Anxiety:

God's Lovers in an Age of Anxiety Joan M. Nuth, 2001 Examines the extraordinary flowering of English spirituality in the fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries Treating the New Anxiety Kirk A. Bingaman, 2007-09-16 A new form of anxiety has emerged stemming in part from our post 9 11 reality but even more stemming from the influence of supermodernity Whereas postmodernism theorizes an anxiety that results from the collapse or loss of meaning through the lens of supermodernity it appears that the new anxiety is evoked more by an excess of meaning generated by the rapid acceleration of human life and the media's daily bombardment with serious global national and local concerns This book explores the nature of the anxiety our supermodern condition provokes and proposes that with the void left by the diminishment of religious involvement and practice the therapy session becomes the definitive place for meaning making Building on a cognitive therapy approach that emphasizes the client's belief system Bingaman demonstrates that to treat this new anxiety most effectively practitioners must help clients identify and explore their core theological beliefs and spiritual values The Consolations of Theology Brian S. Rosner, 2008-04-29 Proceedings of a conference held in 2006 at Moore Theological College Sydney Australia Julian of Norwich Philip Sheldrake, 2018-12-17 A noted scholar examines the work of the English mystic Julian of Norwich Julian of Norwich is the late fourteenth century and early fifteenth century English woman theologian With her mystical writings she has become one of the most popular and influential spiritual figures of our times In Julian of Norwich In God's Sight the eminent scholar Philip Sheldrake offers a study of the theology that Julian expresses in her writings The author examines what is known about Julian's mystical experience or mystical consciousness discusses what can be surmised about Julian's likely identity and places her writings in historical cultural and spiritual contexts Julian of Norwich In God's Sight is based on a faithful reading of Julian's texts especially the Long Text as well as on her own declared theological spiritual purpose This compelling book Presents a contextually grounded and text related study of the key elements of Julian's theology Offers a scholarly work by a well known expert in the field Unlocks an ever richer understanding of Julian's writings Includes an examination of the key texts attributed to Julian Written for students of theology and those interested in learning more about this popular mystic Julian of Norwich In God's Sight offers a scholarly review of Julian's most important writings A World Transfigured Philip Sheldrake, 2022-12-26 2023 Catholic Media Association First Place Award Mysticism In A World Transfigured The Mystical Journey Philip Sheldrake demonstrates the importance of the mystical dimension of religious belief and practice Using the words of the great theologian Karl Rahner Sheldrake makes the case that the Christian of the future will be either a mystic or nothing at all In our contemporary world this judgment applies equally to other religions as well After chapters on the meaning of mysticism and the connection between mysticism and beliefs Sheldrake describes important dimensions of mystical writings illustrated by a range of examples These are Love and Desire Knowing and Unknowing Wonder and Beauty Mysticism and Everyday Practice and The

Mystic as Radical Prophet Finally the book briefly explores why mysticism fascinates so many people in our modern times

Julian of Norwich and the Problem of Evil Richard Norton, 2023-10-26 Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love grapples with the same fundamental question that has vexed philosophers and theologians since the advent of monotheistic religion and continues as a barrier to belief for many today Namely if God is so good how can natural disaster genocide trauma and my present suffering occur Historically there have been two apparently very different approaches to the problem the pastoral or practical on the one hand and the systematic on the other However Richard Norton suggests that these two lines of thought may not be as separate as they seem and may indeed be dependent on one another for their cohesion Drawing on Julian's medieval experience of personal and population wide suffering alongside that of more recent theologians such as Dorothy Solle and Jurgen Moltmann Norton constructs a compassionate model of theodicy that can be of use to both pastoral and systematic theologians Throughout he remains sensitive to the raw atrocity of evil while preserving a vision of God as the one who ensures that all shall be well Medieval Mystical Women in the West John Arblaster, Rob

Faesen, 2024-07-18 This book explores the rich and varied mystical writings by and about medieval and a few early modern women across Western Europe Women had a profound and lasting impact on the development of medieval and early modern spiritual and mystical literature both through their own writing and as a result of the hagiographical texts that they inspired Bringing together contributions by both established and emerging scholars the volume provides a valuable overview of medieval mystical women with a special focus on the Low Countries and Italy regions that produced a disproportionately high number of female mystics The figures discussed range from Hildegard of Bingen Hadewijch Mechthild of Magdeburg Marguerite Porete Angela of Foligno Julian of Norwich and Beatrice of Nazareth to lesser known women such as Agnes Blannbekin Christina of Hane and Maria Maddalena de Pazzi The chapters address topics such as the body pain desire ecstasy stigmata annihilation virtue visions the tension between exterior and interior experience and the nature of mystical union itself The Cloud of Unknowing Elizabeth Ruth Obbard, 2008 Those who turn to spiritual classics for guidance and inspiration often find their style daunting The original texts still have much to offer but their diction and idiom chosen for another era and audience pose an obstacle to many contemporary readers The Cloud of Unknowing for Everyone is the latest in a series that aims to make some of the greatest Christian teachers accessible to all The Cloud of Unknowing written by an unknown fourteenth century author points out that all we can know of God is slight God in Godself is unknowable to our limited intellect and thought Only love can bridge the gap love like an arrow of longing simple straightforward and direct All who feel called to a life of prayer will be captivated by the balanced precise and practical insights of The Cloud In her retelling of this classic Obbard invites contemporary readers to join previous generations who have discovered the riches of this classic text Henri Nouwen Wil Hernandez, 2006 A Praying People James Spencer, Ashish Varma, 2023-06-13

Dwight L Moody's ministry was fueled by prayer The church today would do well to return to prayer It is not something we do having already decided what we are going to do anyway Instead it must become our first thought Prayer must become as natural as breathing A Praying People is inspired by Dwight L Moody and offers insights regarding a range of topics associated with prayer Our hope is that as you read these essays you will not only gain new knowledge about prayer but that you will be motivated to engage in the practice of prayer so that like Dwight Moody you see prayer as a vital part of your Christian life and ministry

With Joyful Acceptance, Maybe Molly Field James, 2013-02-06 In a world where advertisements lead us to hope for a life free from suffering facing the reality of suffering can be a particular challenge Yet the reality of suffering is one that we all face in the course of our lives While Christianity often has the reputation of a tradition that promotes the idea that all suffering is good for you and makes you a better person there is in fact much more variety and nuance to the tradition While there are those who advocate a wholesale acceptance there are others who question the source of suffering and call for it to be fought against This book delves into the world of five theologians Gregory the Great Julian of Norwich Jeremy Taylor C. S. Lewis and Ivone Gebara to understand their perspectives and draw on their approaches as a way of understanding what Christian responses to suffering look like This book constructs a contemporary theology that affirms the importance of the call to combat unjust suffering through acts of love and mercy while also affirming that acceptance of the reality of endemic suffering found in all five theologians can provide us with opportunities to grow spiritually live more faithfully and to experience the blessings in the midst of suffering that are a foretaste of heavenly bliss
