Goethe's Literary Essays. A Selection in English Arranged by J.E. Spingarn, Etc Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Joel Elias SPINGARN, 1921 Goethe's Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1964 Goethe's Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 2020-09-28

When I went for the first time to the Minster my head was full of the common cant of good taste From hearsay I was an admirer of the harmony of mass the purity of form and was a sworn enemy to the confused arbitrariness of Gothic adornment Under the term Gothic like the article in a dictionary I piled all the misconceptions which had ever come into my head of the indefinite the unregulated the unnatural the patched up the strung together the superfluous in art No wiser than a people which calls the whole foreign world barbarous everything was Gothic to me that did not fit into my system from the turned wooden dolls and pictures of gay colors with which the bourgeois nobility decorate their houses to the dignified relics of the older German architecture my opinion of which because of some bizarre scrollwork had been that of everybody Quite buried in ornamentation consequently I had an aversion to seeing it such as I would have before a malformed bristling monster With what unexpected emotions did the sight surprise me when I actually saw it An impression of grandeur and unity filled my soul which because it consisted of a thousand harmonizing details I could taste and enjoy but by no means understand and explain They say it is thus with the rapture of heaven How often I returned to enjoy this heavenly earthly rapture to embrace the stupendous genius of our older brothers in their works How often I returned to view from every side at every distance in every light of the day its dignity and splendor Hard it is for the mind of man when his brother's work is so elevated that he can only bow down and pray How often has the evening twilight refreshed with its friendly calm my eyes wearied by too much gazing it made countless details melt together into a complete whole and mass and now simple and grand it stood before my eyes and full of rapture my power unfolded itself both to enjoy and to understand it at once There was revealed to me in soft intimations the genius of the great builder Why are you astonished He whispered to me All these masses were necessary and do you not see them in all the older churches of my city Only I have given harmonious proportion to their arbitrary vastnesses See how over the principal entrance which commands two smaller ones on either side the wide circle of the window opens which corresponds to the nave of the church and was formerly merely a hole to let the light in see how the bell tower demands the smaller windows All this was necessary and I designed it with beauty But what of these dark and lofty apertures here at the side which seem to stand so empty and meaningless In their bold slender forms I have hidden the mysterious strength which was to raise both of those towers high in the air of which alas only one stands there sadly without the crown of five towers which I had planned for it so that to it and its royal brother the country about would do homage And so he parted from me and I fell into a sympathetic mood of melancholy until the birds of morning which dwelt in its thousand orifices greeted the sun joyously and waked me out of my slumber How freshly it shone in the morning rays how joyfully I stretched my arms towards it surveying its vast harmonious masses animated by countless delicate details of structure as in the works of eternal Nature every form down to the smallest fibril alive and everything contributing to the purpose of the whole How lightly the monstrous solidly grounded building soared into the air how free and delicate everything about it and yet solid for eternity To your teaching noble genius I owe thanks that I did not faint and sink before your heights and depths but that into my soul flowed a drop of that calm rapture of the mighty soul which could look on this creation and like God say It is good Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,1921 Goethe in English Derek Glass,Martin H. Jones,2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethes birth It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004 Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethes anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself The Journal of English and Germanic Philology ,1924 Shakespeare, the Renaissance and Empire Jonathan Locke Hart,2021-05-17 Shakespeare the Renaissance and Empire Poetry Philosophy and Politics is the second volume of this study and builds on the first which concentrated on related matters including geography and language In both volumes a key focus is close analysis of the text and an attention to Shakespeare s use of signs verbal and visual to represent the world in poetry and prose in dramatic and non dramatic work as well as some of the contexts before during and after the Renaissance Shakespeare s representation of character and action in poetry and theatre his interpretation and subsequent interpretations of him are central to the book as seen through these topics German Shakespeare a life and no life aesthetics and ethics liberty and tyranny philosophy and poetry theory and practice image and text The book also explores the typology of then and now local and global Oxford University Press Oxford University Press,1924 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1908 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston ,1921 The Periodical ,1922 Language in Colonization, Renaissance Poetry and Shakespeare Jonathan Locke Hart,2024-09-30 Language is the central concern of this book Colonization poetry and Shakespeare and the Renaissance itself provide the examples I concentrate on text in context close reading interpretation interpoetics and translation with particular instances and works examining matters of interpoetics in Renaissance poetry and prose including epic and the Hugo translation of Shakespeare in France and trying to bring together analysis that shows how important language is in the age of European expansion and in the Renaissance I provide close analysis of aspects of colonization front matter paratext in poetry and prose and Shakespeare that deserve more attention The main themes and objectives of this book are an exploration of language in European colonial texts of the New World paratexts or front matter Renaissance poetry and Shakespeare through close reading including interpoetics liminality translation and key words Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1922
