What Are Teens Thinking? Parent-Teen Conflict and Argument From the Teen Perspective Chris Buzzetta, 2012-01-01 This study explored the embodied teen experience of parent teen conflict and argument using a hermeneutic phenomenological approach Teens self identified as a living in a family with everyday conflict b not seeing a psychologist or counselor c not having been in any drug or alcohol treatment programs d not knowing the researcher ahead of time and e being between the ages of 13 to 19 at the time the interview took place The following themes emerged a feeling powerless small devalued and oppressed b experiencing irritation frustration hypocrisy pettiness and defiance c wanting freedom and autonomy and the battle for control and d needing safe space and me time Each theme and the whole embodied essence of this experience were interpreted through teens as well as the researcher s lenses The interpretations provide insight for teens parents and parent educators that may help improve parent teen relationships and provide strategies to use in the classroom setting Daily Grace for Teens , 2013-05-15 Daily Grace for Teens offers inspiration and encouragement using vivid illustrations of just how God s provisions and blessings provide for the needs of a teen s highly charged life Even more they show how God Himself is the greatest grace provision a young person can have His mercy His love His holiness and more Teen Brain David Gillespie, 2019-03-26 With their labile and rapidly developing brains adolescents are particularly susceptible to addiction and addiction leads to anxiety and depression What few parents will know is that what we think of as the most typical addictions and problematic teen behaviours smoking drinking drug taking sex leading to teenage pregnancy are on the decline The bad news is that a whole raft of addictions has taken their place Whereas once the dopamine hungry brain of a teenager got its fix from smoking a joint or sculling a Bundy and coke it is now turning to electronic devices for the pleasure jolt that typically comes from online playing games and engaging with social media What is doubly troubling is that unlike drugs alcohol and cigarettes electronic devices are not illicit Quite the contrary They are liberally distributed by schools and parents with few restrictions placed on their use And to add fuel to the fire emerging research shows that if addictive pathways are activated during the teen years they are there for life and that what starts as a screen addiction can lead to major substance abuse later in life
