Barry Woods Johnston,2012-03-20 As I turned the pages and began reading this odyssey of Barry Johnston as a veteran and artist my interest increased and I was pleased that I had agreed to review it As We Sow is not a book of fiction nor a novel but an autobiography of a modern renaissance man but a man no less with all his foibles his successes failures fears and frustrations laid out with surgical precision in the cold reality of lifes twists and turns Viet Nam leaves an open wound Barry struggles to understand He is empathic to the wrongs inflicted on the innocent whether from war or life itself His nature is sculpting figurative art imbued with his concerns for humanity He joins a religious art colony in the Swiss Alps known as Labri where Barry argues with the founder Francis Schaeffer over interpretation of scripture and wrestles with his own spirit over the contradictions Never at peace hes at odds with the commercial art establishment for commissions and he reflects on failed marriages after a near heart attack he barely survives Barry reveals himself with honesty and a humanity which make this a compelling biography and a historical account of a representational artist veteran and inventor Daniel Shea Create Anyway Ashlee Gadd,2023-03-28 Motherhood and creativity can coexist You have creative dreams swirling in your heart but pursuing them while changing diapers and managing the carpool schedule feels impossible You have no time No space You can mother or you can create You certainly can t do both right But what if you could pursue your God given creative gifts alongside motherhood for the enrichment of both experiences What if you stopped viewing creativity as a selfish act and started to see it as essential to your own flourishing as a mother This book is a much needed permission slip to do just that through the pictures you take the stories you write the meals you make the music you play the gardens you grow In this unforgettable book filled with rich storytelling and stunning photographs writer and mother Ashlee Gadd helps you set aside the guilt and discover the sacred connection between creating and mothering One part commissioning one part pep talk Create Anyway will propel you forward with a renewed sense of energy purpose and enthusiasm for stewarding the creative dreams God has planted in your heart right alongside the diapers and carpool Here s to creating in the margins of motherhood Here s to creating anyway Positive Mindsets for Our Sojourn Here on Earth Raphael F.
