Promise Concerning His Servant Lee Kah Wor, This book serves as a documentation of what a recipient of the mercy and grace of Elohim has found convincing from His written Word God is love I have the utmost respect for the gift of free choice from the loving Father God This is the first of five volume series on The Messianic Credentials It is not about what the right choice should be It would be ludicrously futile to debate over such a thing as it is a matter of perception In the process of putting this series together I realized that God Elohim did not write what we like to hear He wrote what we need to hear This is because love corrects Proverbs 3 12 and Hebrews 12 6 And God is love 1 John 4 8 and 1 John 4 16 He wrote the Bible out of His Spirit of love In view of the above I have written this series to relay that same Spirit It is an appeal to consider reunion with God the loving Father from the perspective of the salvation wrought through Christ crucified The love of God will bring about a change in perspective In the words of Romans 2 4 it is the kindness of God that leads to repentance As a caveat this series is to be read with an open mind It is meant to present the state of things from a Biblical perspective with no malicious and derogative intent Any perception to the contrary is highly unfortunate and or regrettable In the second volume of this series you will find that the written prophecy about the Promised Messiah could be rightly divided as follows 1 The first verse is about how God would identify the Promised Messiah on earth 2 The second to fourth verses describe the Promised Messiah Who He was and what He would be like 3 Isaiah 42 5 tells us Who commissioned the Promised Messiah and 4 The last two verses reveal the purpose for which the Promised Messiah was sent 40 Questions About Pastoral Ministry Phil A.
