Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Ernest Paul Gillespie, Manfred Engel, Bernard Dieterle, 2008 In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross-cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World Through its combination of chapters on thematic generic and discursive features Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

Robinson Crusoe in Asia Steve Clark, Yukari Yoshihara, 2021-12-13 This collection of essays expands the study of that immensely widely read and much adapted novel beyond the first book The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe usually known simply as Robinson Crusoe to take in the far less well known Farther Adventures and the almost unread Serious Reflections beyond Defoe's texts to their re writing and adaptation and beyond the Atlantic and South American context to an Asian and Pacific context The essays consider both how Asia is represented in the books in terms of politics economics religion and how the book has been received adapted and taught particularly in Asian contexts The Duality of Genius Basil Markesinis, 2008 Mozart Goethe Bernini Talleyrand Jacques Louis David Henry Clay Frick Oliver Wendell Holmes and Mikhail Psellos here are some of the great achievers that most people have heard of But few know much about their extraordinary lives fewer still realize that alongside their grand public persona there was a darker less attractive one that is reflected in their work Why have such factors been ignored or underplayed Deliberate concealment Difficulty in discovering them Or a misguided belief that great achievers must be left standing shining on their pedestals Modern psychobiography doubts the last reason but accepts the difficulties and dangers that accompany the collation and assessment of relevant information This book attempts a candid narrative warts and all of the lives of some great figures from the worlds of painting sculpture politics philosophy law and business but does so also by placing their lives in the context of their times

The result a series of essayistic portraits built around themes close to the lives of those described and brought into greater relief by the inclusion of over ninety beautifully reproduced colour illustrations The aim is to allow the general educated reader to learn more about the genius of creation Those interested in history biography psycho biography and the arts and also believe in the need of a broader culture in times of excessive specialization will enjoy this candid and wide ranging book written by a widely travelled and acclaimed author
