

Educational Administration in Zilla Parishads in Maharashtra : Policy Perspectives*

N.R. INAMDAR

THE INCEPTION of Panchayat Raj in Maharashtra in 1961-62 opened a new era in the field of primary education also, since the functions of the administration of primary education and inspection were transferred from the District School Board to the newly created Zilla Parishads. The undertaking of the study on the basis of the experience of more than eight years was, therefore, very appropriate.

The main focus of the study was to examine the effects of the agency of the Zilla Parishad on education, particularly, primary education, since it provided for direction of administrative functions by a body of non-officials, through the instrumentality of generalist and specialist functionaries. The study sought to assess the role of rural leadership in promoting the cause of primary education. The leverage over the officials gained by the popular leadership in the Zilla Parishad educational administration is weightier in comparison to their relative position in the erstwhile School Board administration. The existence of three levels of administration, viz., the Zilla Parishad, the Taluka Panchayat Samiti and village school, was another component of the analytical framework of the study. The interplay of the functions of the generalists in the Chief Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad and the Block Development Officer at the Panchayat Samiti and the specialists in this Parishad Education Officer and the Samiti Extension Officers, supported by the respective non-officials at their levels, added another dimension to the analysis. These two dimensions did not exist in the School Board administration. The new elements in the situation gave a significance to the present study.

*This article is based on a pilot study conducted in Poona District during 1971-73 with ICSSR financial support, but its contents, findings and policy implications are relevant even today. The work of the project was executed during February 1970-June 1971.
