God In Christian Perspective:

God in Christian Perspective George M. Newlands, 2008-07-17 In this book George Newlands seeks to work out a modern restatement of a Christian understanding of God Father Son and Spirit Evil on the scale experience in modern wars and the awareness of the variety of transcendent values in the pluralism of the contemporary world have tended to reinforce intellectual objections to traditional doctrines If the whole picture must remain partly obscure to us nevertheless we must continue to reflect on the character and activity of the God of the Christian faith and renew our attempts to describe and state beliefs In the first part of his study Professor Newlands considers the sources of a Christian understanding of God and analyses the substantive content of the doctrine of God as creator and reconciler of the cosmos as personal self differentiated transcendent being The second part reflects on christology and examines the social and ethical dimensions of the cost of discipleship Throughout Professor Newlands demonstrates the importance of thinking about God not in unreflecting slogans but with all our intellectual resources One Christian's Perspective of Man's Dilemma God's Solution Steve

Lampman, 2013-04-01 Many people today would list many different things as being man's dilemma such things as health problems unemployment poverty crime war and so on Each of course is a problem found in every society excluding none One could say man's dilemma is universal and they would be correct However each of the things listed above are actually the result of man's dilemma not the cause The cause is found in man's depravity In that depravity every unregenerated human being sets his own standard as to his or her conduct of life Man has rejected the absolute standard of his creator and as a result is alienated toward not only God but from one another Man has no solution for this and therein lays the dilemma God on the other hand has the solution it is found in His provision the Lord Jesus Christ In the pages of this work the author considers man's dilemma God's solution from eleven different perspectives Each chapter is a study in itself but fits nicely as one completed work The Christian View of God and the World as Centering in the Incarnation James Orr, 1893

The Christian View of God and the World as Centring in the Incarnation James Orr, 1907 God of Salvation Murray A. Rae, 2016-04-15 The theology of salvation stands at the heart of the Christian faith Very often the structure of Christian salvation is seen in terms of a single theme such as atonement for sins forgiveness liberation or friendship with God It is easy to reduce soteriology to a matter of merely personal experience or to see salvation as just a solution to a human problem This book explores a vital yet often neglected aspect of Christian confession the essential relationship between the nature of salvation and the character of the God who saves In what ways does God's saving outreach reflect God's character How might a Christian depiction of salvation best bear witness to these features What difference might it make to start with the identity of God as encountered in the gospel then view everything else in the light of that In addressing these questions this book offers fresh appraisals of a range of major themes in theology the nature of creaturely existence the relationship between divine purposes and material history the holiness love and judgement of God the atoning work of Jesus Christ election justification and the nature of faith salvation outside the church human and non human ends the nature of eschatological fellowship with God In looking at these issues in the light of God s identity the authors offer a stimulating and tightly argued reassessment of what a Christian theology of salvation ought to resemble and ask what the implications might be for Christian life and witness in the world today God in Christian Perspective G. M. Newlands,1994 Windows to the World: Literature in Christian Perspective Leland Ryken,2000-04-10 This is a teacher s book written by an able teacher Most people are interested in literature because of a deep love for literature itself They want to understand the reasons for that love Ryken helps us do this but he also helps Christians understand and validate their love for literature Ryken has also provided a solid means for non Christians to understand a Christian perspective on literature It Windows to the World comes closer to defining the goal and task of the teacher of literature than any work I have read Christianity and Literature

Steps Toward Abundant Living Carey N. Ingram,2007-12-13 Abundant living is not about fame and fortune power or prestige Abundant living is about making solid use of the time we have to anchor our existence around God s blessings But most importantly it s about the choices we make God has made us free agents We can choose to simply exist without ever finding or fulfilling our destiny or we can choose to go through the door of the Good Shepherd and live fully In Steps Toward Abundant Living Pastor Carey N Ingram uses biblical principles and common sense to examine three things that bring trouble into life to explain three essential components of happiness and to offer the keys to genuinely abundant living including Exercising faith Demonstrating true love Possessing a passion for life Remaining steadfast in prayer Accepting suffering as a redemptive power Changing lifestyles to the glory of God You owe it to yourself to make life a happy experience With God s help and Pastor Ingram s plan you can do just that Let Steps Toward Abundant Living help you grow into a mature Christian a disciple of Christ so that your legacy of life a good abundant life continues long after you have gone to be with the Lord The Christian View of God and the World as Centering in the Incarnation James Orr,1893

Islam, a Christian Perspective ,1983-01-01 Looks at the history of Islam discusses the life of Muhammad and examines Islamic culture and religious thought Christian Perspectives on Sexuality and Gender Elizabeth Stuart,Adrian Thatcher,1996 This collection of articles present a variety of broadly Christian responses to issues such as sexuality and gender sexuality and spirituality gay and lesbian sexuality sexuality and violence sexuality and singleness and the family

Human Worth in Comparing Secular and Christian Perspectives Monica Thiel,2024-09-23 This book integrates secular literature such as psychology sociology management and organization studies with Christian and spiritual biblical literature This book explores the importance of human worth in our personal and professional lives through an interdisciplinary approach that integrates human and societal worth with Christian and spiritual worth Moreover the book highlights values that receive little or no attention in secular literature Overall this book shows readers how human worth is often manipulated and undermined within societal worth in contrast to Christian worth with implications for cultivating leadership and education This book focuses more on the biblical texts rather than the theological differences In addition this book situates itself on common biblical interests across Christian church denominations worldwide rather than exploring more on the secular cultural differences This book positions itself from a non denominational and Western perspective with a focus on biblical texts theology and secular literature Readers that would be interested in this book are scholars and students in religion ethics and spirituality

Economics in Christian Perspective Victor V. Claar, Robin J. Klay, 2007-07-17 Victor Claar and Robin Klay introduce students to the basic principles of economics and then evaluate the principles and issues as seen from a Christian perspective This textbook places the economic life in the context of Christian discipleship and stewardship This text is for use in any course needing a survey of the principles of economics

Schleiermacher on Christian Consciousness of God's Work in History Abraham Varghese Kunnuthara, 2008-01-01 This work is a fresh unusually lucid approach to Christian theology and interfaith dialogue from India Its basic aim is to examine the Christian consciousness of God's work in history redemption history within the entire history of the world It uses Christian Faith by Friedrich Schleiermacher 1768 1834 as its main text so as to view this theme in a reversed order from the way it is presented there This approach which centers on God's new creation in Christ leads to an incisive understanding of Christianity's relation to other modes of faith Throughout Dr Kunnuthara compares the thought of another Indian Christian leader steeped in Hindu thought Pandipedi Chenchiah 1886 1959 to enable renewed interfaith dialogue across a wide spectrum

Christian Perspectives on the Role of the State, Justice, and Taxation Robert F. van Brederode, 2025-07-19 This book Christian Perspectives on the Role of the State Justice and Taxation examines the historical and ongoing influence of Christian ethical thought on taxation governance and distributive justice Building on themes introduced in Political Philosophy and Taxation Springer 2022 which focused on secular perspectives this sequel shifts attention to the contributions of Christian thinkers from Medieval times to the present The book explores key questions surrounding the role of the state the relationship between the state and its subjects the moral right to tax and what constitutes fairness in taxation It investigates how Christian ethical teachings have shaped Western political philosophy particularly in the context of distributive justice and evaluates their relevance in contemporary discussions By analyzing the intersection of theology ethics and political philosophy this book provides a deeper understanding of how Christian traditions have influenced historical notions of justice fairness and governance It offers insights into how these principles can inform modern policy debates and ethical considerations in taxation This book serves as a valuable resource for scholars students and professionals interested in religious ethics political philosophy and public policy It invites readers to reflect on the enduring impact of Christian thought on concepts of justice and the responsibilities of the state

God Under Fire Zondervan, 2009-12-15 God Never Changes Or does he God has been getting a makeover of late a reinvention that has incited debate and troubled scholars and laypeople alike Modern theological sectors as diverse as radical feminism and the new open theism movement are attacking the classical Christian view of God and vigorously promoting their own images of Divinity God Under Fire refutes the claim that major attributes of the God of historic Christianity are false and outdated This book responds to some increasingly popular alternate theologies and the ways in which they cast classical Christian theism in a negative light Featuring an impressive cast of world class biblical scholars philosophers and apologists God Under Fire begins by addressing the question Should the God of Historic Christianity Be Replaced From there it explores issues as old as time and as new as the inquest into the openness of God How for instance does God risk relate emot and change Does he do these things and if so why These and other questions are investigated with clarity bringing serious scholarship into popular reach Above all this collection of essays focuses on the nature of God as presented in the Scriptures and as Christians have believed for centuries God Under Fire builds a solid and appealing case for the God of classical Christian theism who in recent years as through the centuries has been the God under fire
