God Is Not A Fish Inspector:

God is Not a Fish Inspector W. D. Valgardson, 1975 Ten new stories by the author of Bloodflowers like Valgardson's earlier stories these are set in the Interlake triangle of Manitoba but the themes of love and death and loyalty are both primitive and universal Reviewers have compared Valgardson's sense of necessity the iron frame within which men and women live out their lives to that of Thomas Hardy and the Russian novelists His stories have been published in numerous anthologies and broadcast on CBC TV He has won the President's Medal for the best short fiction published in Canada and been named Bridgeman Scholar to the Breadloaf Writers Conference Valgardson is strong and direct and he has a large audience to prove it his last book has been reprinted three times in the last two years The Canadian Short Story

Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany A Dictionary of Biblical Tradition in English Literature David Lyle Jeffrey, 1992 Over 15 years in the making an unprecedented one volume reference work Many of today's students and teachers of literature lacking a familiarity with the Bible are largely ignorant of how Biblical tradition has influenced and infused English literature through the centuries An invaluable research tool Contains nearly 800 encyclopedic articles written by a distinguished international roster of 190 contributors Three detailed annotated bibliographies Cross references throughout West Coast Review, 1973 Canadian Film and Video Loren R. Lerner, 1997-01-01 This extensive bibliography and reference guide is an invaluable resource for researchers practitioners students and anyone with an interest in Canadian film and video With over 24 500 entries of which 10 500 are annotated it opens up the literature devoted to Canadian film and video at last making it readily accessible to scholars and researchers Drawing on both English and French sources it identifies books catalogues government reports theses and periodical and newspaper articles from Canadian and non Canadian publications from the first decade of the twentieth century to 1989 The work is bilingual descriptive annotations are presented in the language s of the original publication Canadian Film and Video Film et vid o canadiens provides an in depth guide to the work of over 4000 individuals working in film and video and 5000 films and videos The entries in Volume I cover topics such as film types the role of government laws and legislation censorship festivals and awards production and distribution companies education cinema buildings women and film and video art A major section covers filmmakers video artists cinematographers actors producers and various other film people Volume II presents an author index a film and video title index and a name and subject index In the tradition of the highly acclaimed publication Art and Architecture in Canada these volumes fill a long standing need for a comprehensive reference tool for Canadian film and video This bibliography guides and supports the work of film historians and practitioners media librarians and visual curators students and researchers and members of the general public with an interest in film and video Filmmakers ,1981 The Canadian Short Story John Metcalf,2018-09-25 No other person has done more to celebrate and encourage the short story in Canada than John Metcalf For more than five decades he has worked tirelessly as editor anthologist writer critic and teacher to help shape our understanding of the form and what it can do The long time editor of the yearly Best Canadian Stories anthology as well as a fiction editor at some of the pre eminent literary presses in the country for more than forty years he has worked to support and champion several generations of our best writers Literature in Canada would be far less without his efforts Sifting through a lifetime of reading writing and thinking about the short story in this country and where it fits within the larger currents of world literature Metcalf s magisterial The Canadian Short Story offers the most authoritative book on the subject to date Most importantly it includes an expanded and reconsidered Century List Metcalf s critical guide to the best Canadian short story collections of the last 100 years But more than a critical book The Canadian Short Story is a love letter to the form a passionate defense of the best of our literature and a championing of those books and writers most often over looked It is a guide not only to what to read but also one its author s most fervent desire which aims to make better readers of us all

Introduction to Literature Gillian Thomas,1995 Gale Contextual Encyclopedia of World Literature Anne Marie Hacht,Dwayne D. Hayes,2009 Covers world authors from many periods and genres building an understanding of the various contexts from the biographical to the literary to the historical in which literature can be viewed Identifies the significant literary devices and global themes that define a writer s style and place the author in a larger literary tradition as chronicled and evaluated by critics over time Great Stories from the Prairies Birk Sproxton,2000 As expansive as a prairie sky as refreshing as a cool breeze on a hot summer day Great Stories from the Prairies collects the best prairie stories of the last one hundred years From Frederick Phillip Grove s classic Snow to the contemporary delights of Sandra Birdsell and Carol Shields prairie writers have existed always in relation to landscape and a strong sense of place Tracing the development of prairie writing over one hundred years Great Stories from the Prairies reveals how broad the influence of landscape but also provides refreshing insight into its many nuances You will find for instance traditional cultural icons of wind dust and the vast expanse of land and sky But nestling against them you will discover the rich circuitry of city life as in the stories of Guy Vanderhaeghe Carol Shields and Meeka Walsh Playing off that nuance are the parklands and boreal forests of Kristjana Gunnars and W D Valgardson s great inland sea of Lake Winnipeg But perhaps Great Stories from the the Prairies is best characterized by Margaret Laurence who speculates about how prairie dwellers with their horizon accustomed eyes see the world differently from other Canadians This unique collection celebrates that distinct view Education Manitoba ,1988

Stories Plus John Metcalf,1979 Flaming Embers Nela Bureu Ramos,2010 Desire in the broadest sense as a form of generous self assertion should ideally increase with the passage of time as we gradually acquire deeper insight into ourselves and others Prescriptive cultural stereotypes however put obstacles on our path to progress as individuation Yet growing older should not entail renunciation of the singularity of personal fulfilment This volume is a collection of literary testimonies to the power of art to challenge and resist the social constraints on desire in the context of aging In the essays men and women claim their right to age in desire and imaginative vigour Canadian Literature ,1976 Contemporary Authors New Revision John Jorgensen,Daniel Jones,1997-11 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world s most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually Contemporary Canadian Authors ,1996 Journal of Canadian Fiction ,1979 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1975 Icelandic Voice in Canadian Letters Daisy L. Neijmann,1997 This fascinating study explores a remarkable ethnic Canadian literature in close textual and contextual terms for the first time It lays a groundwork for future comparative research in the field of ethnic Canadian studies and challenges assumptions about cultural identity and human experience of the new A History of Canadian Literature William H. New,William Herbert New,2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary
