The Many Lives of Marilyn Monroe Sarah Churchwell,2005-12-27 A brilliant investigation into the debates surrounding Marilyn Monroe s life and the cultural attitudes that her legend reveals There are many Marylins sex goddess and innocent child crafty manipulator and dumb blonde liberated woman and tragic loner Indeed the writing and rewriting of this endlessly intriguing icon s life has produced more than six hundred books from the long procession of authoritative biographies to the memoirs and plays by ex husband Arthur Miller and the works by Norman Mailer and Joyce Carol Oates But even as the books have multiplied myth reality fact fiction and gossip have become only more intertwined there is still no agreement about such fundamental questions as Marilyn's given name, the identity of her father, whether she was molested as a child, and how and why she died. The Many Lives of Marilyn Monroe reviews the unreliable and unverifiable but highly significant stories that have framed the greatest Hollywood legend. All the while, cultural critic Sarah Churchwell reveals us to ourselves, our conflicted views on women, our tormented sexual attitudes, our ambivalence about success, our fascination with self-destruction. In incisive and passionate prose, Churchwell uncovers the shame, belittlement, and anxiety that we bring to the story of a woman we supposedly adore. In the process, she rescues a Marilyn Monroe who is far more complicated and credible than the one we think we know. Re-visiting Female Evil

Melissa Dearey, Susana Nicolás, Roger Davis, 2017-08-28. Reflecting current trends in scholarly analysis of evil and the feminine, the chapters contained in Re-visiting Female Evil focus upon various re-interpretations of evil femininities as a cultural signifier of agency, transgression, and crisis, re-interpreting them through rewriting of other stories, hermeneutic re-interpretations of ancient classical texts, and revised film stage adaptations. These papers illustrate how gendered cultural myths of women's intrinsic connection to evil still persist in today's patriarchal society, though in variant and updated forms. Mischievous, beguiling, seductive, lascivious, unruly, carping, vengeful, and manipulative, from the Disney princess to the murderous Medea, these authors grapple with our understanding of what it is to be and do evil, exploring the possible sources of the fear and hatred of women and the feminine, as well as their continual fascination and appeal, and how these manifest in a range of real-life and fictional narratives that cross times, cultures, and media. The Murder of Marilyn Monroe Jay Margolis, Richard Buskin, 2014-06-03. A New York Times Best Seller. Since Marilyn Monroe died among suspicious circumstances on the night of August 4, 1962, there have been queries and theories, allegations and investigations, but no definitive evidence about precisely what happened and who was involved until now. In The Murder of Marilyn Monroe, Case Closed, renowned MM expert Jay Margolis and New York Times bestselling author Richard Buskin finally lay to rest more than fifty years of wild speculation and misguided assertions by actually naming for the first time the screen goddess's killer, while utilizing the testimony of eye witnesses to exactly what took place inside her house on Fifth Helena Drive in Los Angeles, Brentwood neighborhood. Implicating Bobby Kennedy in the commission of Marilyn's murder, this is the first book to name the LAPD officers who accompanied the US Attorney General to her home, provide details about how the Kennedys used bribes to silence one of the ambulance drivers, and specify how the subsequent cover-up was aided by a noted pathologist's outrageous lies. This blockbuster volume blows the lid off the world's most notorious and talked-about celebrity death, and in the process exposes not only the truth about an iconic star's tragic final hours, but also how a legendary American politician used powerful resources to protect what many still perceive as his untarnished reputation. Skyhorse Publishing, as well as our Arcade imprint, are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history, books about World War II, the Third Reich, Hitler, and his henchmen, the JFK assassination, conspiracies, the American Civil War, the American Revolution gladiators Vikings ancient Rome medieval times the old West and much more While not every title we publish becomes a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Femininity and Psychoanalysis Agnieszka Piotrowska, Ben Tyrer, 2019-05-29 For Freud famously the feminine was a dark continent or a riddle without an answer This understanding concerns man's relationship to the question of woman but femininity is also a matter of sexuality and gender and therefore of identity and experience Drawing together leading academics including film and literary scholars clinicians and artists from diverse backgrounds Femininity and Psychoanalysis Cinema Culture Theory speaks to the continued relevance of psychoanalytic understanding in a social and political landscape where ideas of gender and sexuality are undergoing profound changes This transdisciplinary collection crosses boundaries between clinical and psychological discourse and arts and humanities fields to approach the topic of femininity from a variety of psychoanalytic perspectives From object relations to Lacan to queer theory the essays here revisit and rethink the debates over what the feminine might be The volume presents a major new work by leading feminist film scholar Elizabeth Cowie in which she presents a first intervention on the topic of film and the feminine for over 20 years as well as a key essay by the prominent artist and psychoanalyst Bracha Ettinger Written by an international selection of contributors this collection is an indispensable tool for film and literary scholars engaged with psychoanalysts and anybody interested in different approaches to the question of the feminine

American Monroe S. Paige Baty, 1995-08-15 A highly original work that is extremely important to the study of both culture and politics Demonstrating how the cultural icon of Marilyn Monroe provides the body politic in American mass mediated society Baty not only offers a provocative reading of the iconographic biographic cartographic and hagiographic modes in which Marilyn has been written by others but also gives us a novel theorization of how popular culture translates transforms and embodies the political sphere Vivian Sobchack author of The Address of the Eye Reborn on coffee cups T-shirts and film footage in conspiracy theory biography and necrophilia the remembered fragments of Marilyn Monroe so Paige Baty shows make up cult objects of our imagined community American Monroe is endlessly revelatory not only about the meanings of Marilyn but also about the nature of the common culture of the United States Mike Rogin author of Ronald Reagan The Movie In this original imaginative and innovative book Paige Baty asks and answers important questions about U.S. political culture by examining many mass mediated memories of Marilyn Monroe Baty uses our continuing national obsession with Monroe's life and death as a means of exploring the ways in which languages of belonging dominate our mass mediated political landscape She explores how iconic representations personal biographies conspiracy theories and anxieties about death shape the symbolic economy of American politics into what she calls the post mortem condition This important inquiry about collective memory mass media and political culture starts with the life and the mass mediated memory of one celebrity but it builds into a fascinating and persuasive general discussion about the nature of knowledge and the social production of the individual self in a world where mass mediated images and icons form the core of our collective consciousness George Lipsitz author of Dangerous Crossroads Popular Music Postmodernism and the Poetics of Place If U S culture cannot forget Marilyn Monroe readers of American Monroe will not be able to forget Professor Baty s elegant and provocative arguments Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe are both representative figures in U S cultural politics While his death is repetitively denied Elvis s living clones endlessly populate hotel conventions and tabloids But it is Marilyn s dissected body and haunting story of suicide that proliferate in the undead spaces of U S mass mediated culture In American Monroe Baty writes a haunting kind of political theory Her project probes the profusion of meanings associated with a cultural figure who is at the heart of contemporary crises in representation American Monroe is a book about cultural memory as political practice it is a work to remember Donna Haraway author of Simians Cyborgs and Women The Reinvention of Nature

Household Words Stephanie Ann Smith,2006 Looking in detail at words that treat people as things and things as people and do so at that strange space where joking ridiculing demeaning oppressing resisting and regretting converge Household Words is a study of how certain words act as indices of political and social change perpetuating anxieties and prejudices even as those ways of thinking have been seemingly resolved or overcome by history Specifically Stephanie A Smith examines six words bloomer sucker bombshell scab nigger and cyber and explores how these words with their contemporary universal meaning appeal to a dangerous idea about what it means to be human an idea that denies our history of conflict She traces bombshell from Marilyn Monroe through women s liberation and the sexual revolution to Monica Lewinsky scab from blemish to strikebreaker sucker from lollipop to the routinely cheated Exposing the ambiguities in each of the words Smith reveals that our language is communal and cutting democratic and discriminatory social and psychological Stephanie A Smith is associate professor of English at the University of Florida and the author of Conceived by Liberty Maternal Figures and Nineteenth Century American Literature as well as three novels

The Flight of Events German ARCE ROSS, 2024-05-31 The Flight of Events the second book of a Psychopathology of Melancholia Series after Manie m lancolie et facteurs blancs Beauchesne Paris 2009 is a work on altruistic anguishes in manic depressive suicides In this book German Arce Ross has chosen to focus on the psychological processes that occur prior to the act of suicide rather than on the act itself We can detect these processes in a subject during the period between the decision to commit suicide and the passage to the act In the consideration of certain moments preceding a suicidal or criminal act in the case of critical episodes that are non delusional non hallucinated and non acted but sometimes assimilated to psychotic or twilight moments where we locate in particular a discontinuity or a radical rupture albeit momentary with the Other we can observe that there are things facts or events that happen to the subject without any form of control over them whatsoever In these uncontrolled intersubjective events what the subject suffers from is a tendency to undergo the acts that he himself makes others perform During this flight of events it is not entirely true that the subject flees the events of his life it is rather the events that flee

The Extension of Life R. A. York, 2003 Studies ten American novels from the later twentieth century in the light of theories of narration and of the recent debate on the nature of fiction After an introduction to the theoretical background it analyzes works by Malamud Bellow Capote Barth Doctorow Morrison Oates Ford Smiley and Kingsolver emphasizing the complementary tendencies in American fiction to documentation of historical conditions and to the free play of the creative writer to factual record and to self-conscious fabulation It argues that the tension between these two tendencies expresses an acute concern with the limitations of modern life with the writer's drive to constitute a realm of freedom and with the challenges of reconciling the two
