, La presente obra profundiza en el conocimiento de uno de los agentes más destacados para la Historia y los historiadores ya que gracias a su labor podemos acercarnos a numerosos matices de nuestro devenir histórico nos referimos a los escribanos Fue el de escribano uno de los oficios liberales más importantes de las centurias de la Modernidad La obra permite conocer no solo los nombres de estos oficiales de la capital malacitana sino de toda su provincia en un momento histórico concreto La horquilla cronológica estudiada ha sido el siglo XVIII español y en concreto los años centrales de dicha centuria Años en los que se llevaron a término las pesquisas catastrales auspiciadas por el Marqués de la Ensenada El análisis de la institución notarial es de gran relevancia para la historiografía ya que supone acercarnos a los agentes creadores de una documentación con importancia cardinal para conocer la Historia como es la documentación notarial que recoge en su seno partes de una historia difícilmente reconstruible la vida civil de los sujetos históricos habituales Tal es el caso de los testamentos avalados por la fe pública notarial y todo lo que su tenor documental nos ofrece para la construcción de la historia social y de las mentalidades Lugares de la historia que hasta hace pocas décadas habían sido poco transitados por la historiografía A esto hay que sumarle la importancia que para cualquier sociedad tiene y ha tenido la escritura La historia de la cultura escrita nos revela un hecho que hoy día todavía es constatable en toda sociedad siempre ha habido personas que saben escribir y otras que no y esto representa una diferenciación de gran trascendencia en el seno de la misma    Creating Christian Granada David Coleman,2013-08-15 Creating Christian Granada provides a richly detailed examination of a critical and transitional episode in Spain's march to global empire The city of Granada Islam's final bastion on the Iberian peninsula surrendered to the control of Spain's Catholic Monarchs Isabella and Ferdinand on January 2 1492 Over the following century Spanish state and Church officials along with tens of thousands of Christian immigrant settlers transformed the formerly Muslim city into a Christian one With constant attention to situating the Granada case in the broader comparative contexts of the medieval reconquista tradition on the one hand and sixteenth century Spanish imperialism in the Americas on the other Coleman carefully charts the changes in the conquered city's social political religious and physical landscapes In the process he sheds light on the local factors contributing to the emergence of tensions between the conquerors and Granada's formerly Muslim native morisco community in the decades leading up to the crown mandated expulsion of most of the city's moriscos in 1569 1570 Despite the failure to assimilate the moriscos Granada's status as a frontier Christian community under construction fostered among much of the immigrant community innovative religious reform ideas and programs that shaped in direct ways a variety of church wide reform movements in the era of the ecumenical Council of Trent 1545 1563 Coleman concludes that the process by which reforms of largely Granadan origin contributed significantly to transformations in the Church as a whole forces a reconsideration of traditional top down conceptions of sixteenth century Catholic reform

Everyday Magic in Early Modern Europe Kathryn A. Edwards, 2016-03-09 While pre modern Europe is often seen as having an enchanted or magical worldview the full implications of such labels remain inconsistently explored Witchcraft demonology and debates over pious practices have provided the main avenues for treating those themes but integrating them with other activities and ideas seen as forming an enchanted Europe has proven to be a much more difficult task This collection offers one method of demystifying this world of everyday magic Integrating case studies and more theoretical responses to the magical and preternatural the authors here demonstrate that what we think of as extraordinary was often accepted as legitimate if unusual occurrences or practices In their treatment of and attitudes towards spirit assisted treasure hunting magical recipes trials for sanctity and visits by guardian angels early modern Europeans showed more acceptance of and comfort with the extraordinary than modern scholars frequently acknowledge Even witchcraft could be more pervasive and less threatening than many modern interpretations suggest Magic was both mundane and mysterious in early modern Europe and the witches who practiced it could in many ways be quite ordinary members of their communities The vivid cases described in this volume should make the reader question how to distinguish the ordinary and extraordinary and the extent to which those terms need to be redefined for an early modern context They should also make more immediate a world in which magic was an everyday occurrence

Roots of Sustainability in the Iberian Empires Koldo Trapaga Monchet, Álvaro Aragón-Ruano, Cristina Joanaz de Melo, 2023-06-05 This book sheds light on the roots of sustainability in the Iberian Peninsula that lie in the interrelations between shipbuilding and forestry from the 14th to the 19th centuries combining various geographical scales local regional and national and different timespans short term and long term studies Three main themes are discussed in depth here firstly the roots of current conservationism in the Iberian Peninsula the evolution of the forest policies set in motion at local regional and national levels to meet the demand for wood and timber and the long standing impact of naval empirical forestry on the conservation and transformation of the forest landscape Therefore the book attempts on the one hand to unravel the forest policies and empirical forestry implemented in the Iberian Peninsula as the roots or origins of what we refer to nowadays as sustainability and to assess the contribution of imperial forestry to landscape planning and the conservation of forest resources on the other and finally to break away from the prevailing theological narrative that shipbuilding was the main agent of forest destruction in the early modern Iberian Peninsula for which both quantitative and qualitative analyses will be conducted This book will be of key interest to environmental and social historians and researchers and to anyone devoted to conducting research on the emergence and evolution of the concept of sustainability with respect to the governance and the historical transformation of woodlands around the world
