God or Christ: a Study in Social Psychology Jean Milet,1981      God or Christ? Jean Milet,1981      God Or Christ? Jean Milet,1981      Joseph Ratzinger and the Healing of Reformation-Era Divisions Emery de Gaál ,Matthew Levering,2019-11-01 Edited by Emery de Gaál and Matthew Levering Joseph Ratzinger and the Healing of Reformation Era Divisions examines Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI s manifold contributions to Catholic Protestant theological reflection The collection opens with an introduction comparing Ratzinger s approach to ecumenism to that of Karl Rahner Rahner argues that the structural uniting of Protestants and Catholics should take place now without worrying about doctrinal differences In contrast Ratzinger argues that unity in Christ requires probing the doctrinal differences and seeking a deeper understanding of the reasoning of each side on the grounds that the truth of the Gospel that each side desires to preserve will ultimately be the basis for the only kind of Christian ecclesial unity worth having namely a unity of the basis of the truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ Detailed essays follow treating a number of loci including papal primacy ecumenical principles liturgy evangelization Mariology Christ s birth and the celebration of Christmas public theology Christocentrism Martin Luther charity conscience missiology justification the reception of Ratzinger Benedict in Radical Orthodoxy and Scripture and Tradition These essays run the full gamut of Ratzinger Benedict s major themes and preoccupations Ten of the essays are by Catholic scholars and seven by Protestant scholars Contributors include many of the world s leading Ratzinger experts and the volume opens with an essay by Bishop Rudolf Voderholzer Director of the Pope Benedict XVI Institute in Regensburg Germany      The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 10 Edward Schillebeeckx,2014-09-25 This book was originally planned as the ecclesiological third part of Schillebeeckx Jesus trilogy It indeed concludes his thinking about the relevance of the living Jesus through history but with a different approach than originally intended By the end of the 20th century many believers have left the unworldly super naturalistic preconciliar church behind Those who leave the church often leave a church that claims to be the direct mediator of God s will However the church is not a flawless gift from heaven It is the vulnerable work of human beings which tries to find accurate ways to comply to the heart of the gospel message In a time that is characterized by polarization in the church Schillebeeckx does not forget to look at the unprecedented and authentic flourishing of the gospel This book therefore contains the testimony of a theologian who tried during the course of his life to describe what God can mean for people today      Bérulle and the French School William M. Thompson,1989 This work provides an introduction to the history and major themes of the 17th century French School of Spirituality and its contemporary relevance Included are works of Pierre de Berulle 1575 1629 Madeleine de Saint Joseph Jean Jacques Olier and John Eudes      Union Seminary Quarterly Review ,1982      From Jesus to John Marinus de Jonge,Martinus Christianus Boer,1993-01-01      No Other Name? Paul F. Knitter,1985-01-01      The Benedict Proposal Joshua Brumfield,2020-05-06 How ought the church respond to the rise of a post Christian secular age Should it retreat What is the mission of the church in this context Joseph Ratzinger's eucharistic ecclesiology provides a model for living the relation between communion and mission a model that provides a sound image for conceiving of and imagining the church's engagement with modernity and the embodiment of missionary communion Ratzinger's vision deeply influenced by St Benedict's and St Augustine's responses to the problems of their day offers a theologically and liturgically grounded vision of missionary communion that transcends politics In light of our creation by and for the triune God authentic responses to the present disintegration of reason and community require the witness and invitation of the church as a community for the world Ratzinger argues that right worship can and does habituate Christians and equip churches to respond to the existential questions confronting modern persons many of whom seem partially paralyzed by the anxieties of life without truth and communion Might the witness of communion for mission lived by the new ecclesial movements especially the Focolare offer an example of how Ratzinger's creative minorities can successfully evangelize this secular age The Thomist, 1983 A speculative quarterly review Christocentric Reformed Theology in Nineteenth-Century America Emanuel V. Gerhart, 2021-07-30 Knowledge of the ideas of the theologian Emanuel V Gerhart is essential for understanding nineteenth century American theology Gerhart was one of the first to introduce a complete systematic Christocentric theological system to Americans His Institutes of the Christian Religion developed the ideas of European theologians and promoted the effort to systematize Mercersburg theology Gerhart embraced German idealism rather than Scottish philosophy in his scholarship As a mediating theologian he attempted to reconcile historical Christianity with modern culture His lectures essays and texts addressed the religious challenges and intellectual issues of his day from a Christocentric perspective Together they were a major contribution to the Mercersburg Movement in particular and American theology in general from the antebellum period to the progressive era His publications were devoted to a range of disciplines that included education philosophy and theology This volume portrays Gerhart's core theological ideas as found in his main texts and offers introductory commentaries and gives the historical background for his intellectual contributions Is There a Christian Ethics? Lucien Richard, 1988 The Downside Review, 2006 Theological Studies William James McGarry, John Courtney Murray, 1982

Pluralism in the World Religions Harold G. Coward, 2000-08-31 Featuring coverage of all the major religions this is a fascinating introduction to the manner in which each world faith views the others The Center is Jesus Christ Himself Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan, Bishop James Massa, 2021-04-02 The polarization in the Church today can be traced back to a more fundamental crisis in theology one which has failed to connect our mundane experiences and the mysteries of the Christian faith with the person of Jesus Christ Ecclesial discourse on the so called hot button issues of the day too often take place without considering the foundation and goal of the Church And this is unfortunately due to a similar tendency in the academic theology that informs that ecclesial discourse In short much of post conciliar Catholic theology is adrift floating aimlessly away from the center of the Christian faith who is Christ The Center is Jesus Christ Himself is a collection of essays which anchor theological reflection in Jesus Christ These diverse essays share a unified focal point but engage with a variety of theological subdisciplines e g dogmatic moral Biblical etc areas e g Christology Pneumatology missiology etc and periods e g patristic medieval and modern Given the different combinations of sub disciplines areas and periods theology is susceptible to fragmentation when it is not held together by some principle of unity A theology in which the person of Jesus Christ serves as that principle of unity is a Christocentric theology Together the essays illustrate not only what Christocentric theology looks like but also what the consequences are when Christ is dislodged from the center whether by a conspicuous silence on or by a relativization of his unique salvific mission The volume is published in honor of Emeritus Professor of Systematic Theology at Boston College Rev Dr Robert P Imbelli who dedicated his teaching and writing to bringing Christ back to the center of Catholic theological discourse

Jesus and Liberation Carlos R. Piar, 1994 This book examines how liberation theologians Leonardo Boff Jon Sobrino Juan L Segundo and others have elaborated a christology a story about Jesus that addresses the oppression under which the majority of Latin Americans live The book seeks to point out methodological and rhetorical weaknesses and inconsistencies that undermine the validity persuasiveness and hence efficacy of the liberationist discourse The book challenges liberation theologians to construct a christology that would be as coherent in its development and proclamation as it would be liberating The book also focuses on such areas as liberation theology christology theological method hermeneutics and Christian ethics
