God with Us Mark Allan Powell, 1995-01-01 In successive chapters Matthew's understanding of mission worship teaching stewardship and social justice are described in such a way as to assist the reader in understanding the theology of Matthew as a whole Powell inquires into the direction and thrust of Matthew's Gospel in categories related to pastoral theology rather than systematic theology The Gospel of Matthew in Current Study David Edward Aune, 2001 First rate scholars here explore the pastoral and academic aspects of the study of Matthew's Gospel Built on the best of current research these chapters cover a diverse range of significant topics in addition to highlighting the points of disagreement that continue to stimulate scholarship in the field Published in memory of William G Thompson S J The Gospel of Matthew in Current Study is not only a fitting tribute to Thompson's lifelong interest in the First Gospel but is also an excellent introduction to contemporary Matthean studies with great potential as a classroom resource Contributors Richard S Ascough David E Aune Wendy Cotter Daniel J Harrington Jack Dean Kingsbury Amy Jill Levine Anthony J Saldarini Donald Senior Graham N Stanton Thomas H Tobin Elaine Wainwright The Zechariah Tradition and the Gospel of Matthew Charlene McAfee Moss, 2009-02-26 The Zechariah Tradition and the Gospel of Matthew is a comprehensive study of the ways Matthew utilizes Zechariah texts and traditions Against the background of materials from Qumran and apocryphal and deuterocanonical writings Matthew's explicit citations of Zechariah are examined the influence of Zechariah elsewhere in the First Gospel is identified and the extent to which Matthew alludes to characteristic Zechariah themes alone or in combination with other prophetic traditions is explored Zechariah traditions appear in Matthew's distinctive materials as well as in texts Matthew has transmitted or altered from Mark and Q The impact of Zech 9 14 is not limited to the Passion Narrative but extends through Matthew's Infancy and Galilean healing narratives as well important concepts from Zech 1 8 are also discerned in the Infancy and Passion Narratives Moss works through the canonical order of Matthew this enables readers to appreciate the cumulative effect of Zechariah's influence at each stage of the Gospel story Two appendices one arranged according to Zechariah and the other to Matthew list possible references to Zechariah in Matthew This monograph is useful for Matthean studies and it is an insightful investigation of how one set of Old Testamental traditions are appropriated in one canonical Gospel and in the New Testament The New Testament Donald A. Hagner, 2012-11-15 This capstone work from widely respected senior evangelical scholar Donald Hagner offers a substantial introduction to the New Testament Hagner deals with the New Testament both historically and theologically employing the framework of salvation history He treats the New Testament as a coherent body of texts and stresses the unity of the New Testament without neglecting its variety Although the volume covers typical questions of introduction such as author date background and sources it focuses primarily on understanding the theological content and meaning of the texts putting students in a position to understand the origins of Christianity and its canonical writings Throughout Hagner delivers balanced conclusions in conversation with classic and current scholarship The book includes summary tables diagrams maps and extensive bibliographies Essential Bible Study Tools for Ministry Professor David R. Bauer, 2014-03-18 This up to date highly selective bibliography is designed to acquaint students and ministers with major works significant publishers and prominent scholars in biblical studies It is the perfect guide for beginning a research project or building a ministerial library References are included based on the following considerations 1 usefulness for the theological interpretation of the Bible within the context of the faith of the church 2 significance in the history of interpretation and 3 representation of evangelical and especially evangelical Wesleyan scholarship

Isaiah's Christ in Matthew's Gospel Richard Beaton, 2002-11-14 Matthew's Jesus is typically described as the humble compassionate messiah This 2002 book argues that this is however only half the story Matthew's theologically rich quotation of Isaiah 42 1 4 traditionally considered one of the four servant songs underscores that manifest in Jesus powerful message and deeds particularly his healings and inclusion of the marginalized is the justice that was thought to accompany the arrival of the kingdom of God The study explores modifications to the text form of the Isaianic citations their relationship to the surrounding context and the rhetorical force of the final form It argues that the quotations are bi referential functioning on both a narrative and theological level and also explores the issues surrounding the troublesome extraneous content It arrives at the conclusion that this citation was central to Matthew's understanding of Jesus life and mission All totalled this study offers a refreshing exploration of Matthew's high ethical Christology

Identity, Ethics, and Ethos in the New Testament Jan G. van der Watt, 2012-02-13 The book deals with the relation between identity ethics and ethos in the New Testament The focus falls on the way in which the commandments or guidelines presented in the New Testament writings inform the behaviour of the intended recipients The habitual behaviour ethos of the different Christian communities in the New Testament are plotted and linked to their identity Apart from analytical categories like ethos ethics and identity that are clearly defined in the book efforts are also made to broaden the specific analytical categories related to ethical material The way in which for instance narratives proverbial expressions imagery etc inform the reader about the ethical demands or ethos is also explored

Biblical Interpretation in Early Christian Gospels Thomas R. Hatina, 2008-08-18 The second title in a proposed five volume work volume two following on from the volume on Mark's Gospel concentrates on Matthew's Gospel Contributors consider the function of embedded scripture texts in the context of the Gospels written and read heard in their early Christian settings The project is wide ranging with essays on the function of scripture in the compositional history of the gospels and the collection is broad in scope as a result of current interest in the integration of methods especially historical and narrative ones Advancements over the last 20 years in the study of genre and narrative criticism have left a void in the study of the function of embedded biblical texts in the Gospels This collection of essays will move the study of scripture within scripture forwards
