Arthur Shearly Cripps John Robert Doyle, 1975 Maronda Mashanu: The History Of A Community Murray Steele, 2017-03-08 The Maronda Mashona Five Wounds of Christ community was set up in colonial Zimbabwe just over a century ago by the missionary poet redoubtable champion of African rights and fierce critic of imperialist oppression Rev Arthur Shearly Cripps This book describes the evolution of the community from its beginnings as a mission sanctuary for black people who had been deprived of their lands or had suffered oppression at the hands of white farmers and officials Following Cripps s death in 1952 the Maronda Mashona community evolved into a conjunction of small scale landholders and communal area cultivators tied together by their common identification with the legacy of Baba Cripps It is the culmination of the author s long association with the Maronda Mashanu community going back several decades and is based on extensive oral and documentary evidence The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development Costly Communion ,2019-01-28 Costly Communion Ecumenical Initiative and Sacramental Strife in the Anglican Communion seeks to engage with Anglicanism s theological responses to the onset of the twilight of empire and to explore the diversity of Anglican sacramental and ecumenical controversies during the twentieth century From sacramental initiation and the doctrine of Eucharistic sacrifice to church order and the historic episcopate Costly Communion offers insights into Anglo Catholic and Evangelical attempts to resolve the divisions provoked by the impact of the Oxford Movement from the 1830s In its engagement with sub Saharan African contextualization of the Anglican moreover Costly Communion analyses the unanticipated threat that Anglican diversity now poses for the unity of the Anglican Communion Contributors are Jeff Boldt Jeremy Bonner Hugh Bowron Mark Chapman Colin Buchanan Ken Farrimond Joseph Galgalo Benjamin Guyer Charlotte Methuen Thomas Mhuriro Esther Mombo Zablon Nthamburi Kevin Ward African Music, Power, and Being in Colonial Zimbabwe Mhoze Chikowero,2015-11-24 In this new history of music in Zimbabwe Mhoze Chikowero deftly uses African sources to interrogate the copious colonial archive reading it as a confessional voice along and against the grain to write a complex history of music colonialism and African self liberation Chikowero s book begins in the 1890s with missionary crusades against African performative cultures and African students being inducted into mission bands which contextualize the music of segregated urban and mining company dance halls in the 1930s and he builds genealogies of the Chimurenga music later popularized by guerrilla artists like Dorothy Masuku Zexie Manatsa Thomas Mapfumo and others in the 1970s Chikowero shows how Africans deployed their music and indigenous knowledge systems to fight for their freedom from British colonial domination and to assert their cultural sovereignty Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam,Alicia L. The Last British Liberals in Africa Dickson Mungazi, 1999-05-30 A study of the clash of two traditions British liberalism and African nationalism and an examination of how Michael Blundell in Kenya and Garfield Todd in Zimbabwe used their liberal backgrounds to further the future of their adopted countries despite threats and detention Both Blundell and Todd believed that political leaders had a responsibility to serve the needs of the people as a condition of national development By the time each came to power European colonization had had a profoundly negative effect on the lives of Africans Blundell and Todd sought to correct this by putting their positive views of Africans into practice While colonial governments designed strategies for controlling Africans to serve political and economic interests at home in Europe Africans themselves established their own effective strategy not only to ensure their survival in the colonial setting but also to initiate a process for the restoration of their sense of self Michael Blundell and Garfield Todd with their liberal beliefs served as excellent allies in this period of a rising African consciousness Using sources obtained in Kenya and Zimbabwe over the past 15 years this work examines democratic traditions that have survived tumultuous times in recent years
